President's Message

Archives St. Jecoph's Cellego Patchegue, Fi.Y. 11772 Dear Friends.

I am delighted to share with you the enormous success St. Joseph's College has enjoyed this past year—in fact, this past decade. The 1980's have been a period of growth unprecedented in the history of the College—serving 1,000 students in 1979 and over 2,700 in 1989.

I am even more pleased to report to you that while we are growing beyond our expectations, we are maintaining our commitment to excellence in higher education, the tradition that has become synonymous with St. Joseph's College.

As you will note when you read this report new programs have been introduced, a new building has been constructed, others renovated, and academic and student activity facilities upgraded, and faculty are engaged in a variety of challenging endeavors.

The contributions of students and faculty both to the College community and to the greater communities in which they live are a source of great pride to us all

We also pay tribute to the Board of Trustees, whose leadership and foresight continue to be instrumental in the success achieved by the College. These men and women have given diligently of their time and talents to help us reach our goals and to help us set new ones.

The final portion of this report is the traditional Donors Report. Your generosity moves us closer to reaching the $5 million financial goal of the New Horizons Capital Campaign and to meeting the needs of our student body through upgrading facilities and providing more scholarship assistance. Thank you for your willing and generous response to the needs of the College through the years.

I invite you now to join us in commitment and support as the College moves into the last decade of the twentieth century. Your participation is vital as we accept the responsibility of educating for the future

Sincerely,

S. George Aquin O'Connor, C.S.J.

President, St. Joseph's College

Educating for the Future...

In 1991—St. Joseph's College will celebrate its Diamond Jubilee... 75 years of excellence in education, and service to the community.

As we approach this significant milestone, we look back with gratitude on all that has been accomplished, and remember all those who have been part of the St Joseph's story.

We also look ahead, with confidence and enthusiasm, to new challenges and opportunities. As we preserve the best of the past, we will move into the future...small but strong, rooted in tradition but innovative and open, personal but highly professional,—a College for the 90's—and Beyond!

1989-1990 Donors Report

St. Joseph's College 1990-1991 President's Report

Bold Strokes for the 90's...

Trustees Meet: Sheila Baird, Chairperson of the Investment Committee, S. George, and Chairman of the Board Frederick T. Shea review first draft of the Middle States self-study.

Joint faculty meeting is addressed by Dr. Ketly concerning Task Force assignments.

Two major projects engaged us during this year... we prepared both for the reaccreditation visit of the Middle States Association and for our Diamond Jubilee. Each provided an opportunity for grateful reflection on the past and planning for the future...

Reaccreditation: Since the Fall of 1990, the College has been preparing for the visit of the Middle States Association of Colleges and Universities. Lenore Kelly, Ph.D. (Brooklyn Campus), and Monica Brennan, Ph.D. (Suffolk Campus), served as cochairs of the Self-Study process and they worked with Lorraine Boykin, Ed.D. (representing General Studies), Sister John Raymond McGann, Ph.D., and Sister Mary Florence Burns, Ph.D.

Task Forces were formed to study existing policies and procedures, and to make recommendations. The areas reviewed included: Governance, Institutional Planning, Program and Curricula, Faculty, Institutional Effectiveness, Students and Student Life, and Instructional Resources and Plant.

Middle States Steering Committee: Seated: Dr. Lorraine
Boykin, Assoc. Prof. of Community Health; S. Mary
Florence Burns, Acad. Vice President; S. John Raymond
McGann, Prof. of Education;
(standing) Co-Chairpersons
Dr. Monica Brennan, Assoc.
Prof. of History, and Dr. Lenore
Kelly, Prof. of Sociology.

The Task Forces met regularly as campus-based groups and in joint sessions as needed. The final report will be presented to the Reaccreditation Team scheduled to visit the College from March 1-4, 1992. "Even more important," noted Dr. Kelly, "is that all of us have been strengthened in the process by a better understanding of the College's goals."

As we look forward to the visit, we are heartened by the positive results of our Self-Study and rejoice that the College is approaching its 75th Anniversary financially secure and academically sound...fit for the future...and ready to celebrate our past!

Jubilee: A planning committee has been working since the Spring of '91...among the projects on the drawing board for Fall '91 are a festive liturgy and reception, lectures, the Alumni Luncheon, with Special Jubilee Raffle, and the Diamond Jubilee Dinner Dance. The Spring will continue the celebration with events at both campuses.

This is a crowded calendar, but there is much to celebrate, and there are many reasons for thanksgiving. We will send out details of future events, and we hope you will plan to be with us for many of them.

S. Mary Maier...challenges and encourages.

An excellent faculty is the heart of an excellent academic institution. Representing their colleagues are the following faculty members whose achievements this past year exemplify the finest qualities of their profession.

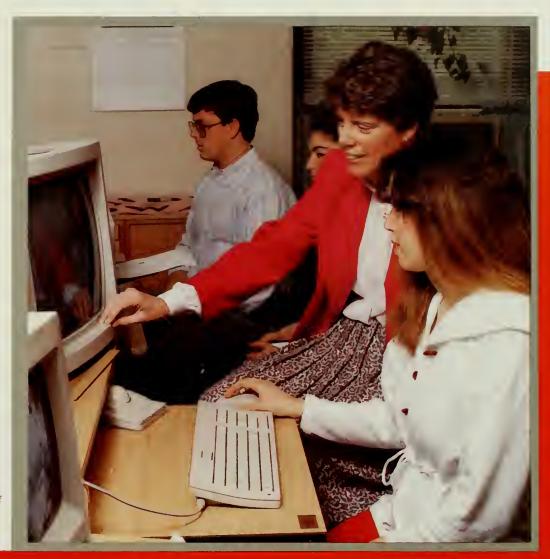

Lorraine Boykin, Ed.D., (Community Health)... presented papers on "Nutrition Therapy as Treatment Modality in HIV/Aids" (Cairo, Egypt); "Nutrition in Alcohol Prevention" (Vancouver, Canada); and "Leadership in Quality Assurance" (Rome, Italy).

Debra Freedman, M.S., (Business)...among her works are "Learning the Write Stuff Through Computer Technology" for Classroom Computers Magazine... papers at the National Educational Computing Conference in Nashville, TN..."Using Computer Technology with Special Education/Speech

Mark Hessler, Ph.D. Cand., (History)...recipient of the Sears Roebuck Foundation's 1990-91 Teaching Excellence and Campus Leadership Award. David Seppala-Holtzman, Ph.D., (Mathematics)... researched and published in the areas of topology and other hyperbolic geometry...featured speaker at N.Y. Math Fair and at Math Awareness Week...organized 50th anniversary of N.Y. Metro MAA.

Margaret Jennings, Ph.D., (English)... first to participate in SJC's sabbatical program...published "Rhetor Redivivus: Cicero in the Artes Praedicandi" in Archives d' bistoire doctrinale et litterare du moyen age...research project: "Dream of the Rood," 12th century grammar and rhetoric.

Sister Mary Maier, Ph.D., (Chemistry)...headed acclaimed weekend "Experiences in Science" program for over 60 high school students... "starred" on the Pastoral Communications Channel in a television series geared to 7th and 8th grade students in the 164 parochial schools of the Diocese of Brooklyn...cited by the New York Academy of Science.

Moira Royston, Ph.D., (Biology)...published a study in the noted scientific journal "Virus Research" titled "Changes in Cell Gene Expression in Human Leukemia Cells Persistently Infected with Vaccinia Virus"...reviewed and judged scientific and medical projects submitted to the Ira Berdorf Research Project for the N.Y. Academy of Science.

Maria Lipschutz...Honor student, Arts and Sciences Valedictorian, Child Study major, mother of two, helped form club for mature students... working at art project.

For 75 years, SJC's students have been movers and shakers...achieving academic honors...contributing to their local communities. Wherever they go, they live our motto: To Be And Not To Seem.

Manuela Alana, Kathleen Barrett and Eileen Schnau...all accepted into the New York College of Podiatric Medicine, with which St. Joseph's has an affiliation agreement.

Barbara Brownyard...elected to the Board of Directors of the Hospice of South Shore.

Sandra Davis...a Distinguished Graduate Award recipient...pursuing a master's degree at Polytechnic Institute.

Annette Hernandez...accepted into numerous graduate programs in psychology...opted for a fellowship for St. John's University Clinical Psychology Program.

Edna Hernandez...accepted into 10-week summer research program in bio-chemistry at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Charles Hilgendorf...awarded a fellowship in Chemistry to St. John's University...honored by the American Institute of Chemists as an outstanding chemistry graduate.

Danielle Janusz...awarded the Gallatin Publishing Fellowship at New York University...accepted into the master's program at Michigan State.

Kim Johnson...offered numerous scholarships and fellowships for graduate work in psychology...including the prestigious Connolly College Scholarship at L.I.U....presently enrolled in Ph.D. program at Pace.

Student government leaders preside at weekly meeting with faculty and administrators.

Blood drives at both campuses provide "the gift of tife" for many.

Eric Meyers...accepted into the Master's in Counseling program at Hofstra University.

Nykki Monteclavo...N.Y. State Governor for Circle K Clubs...charismatic, energetic...the essence of volunteerism...one reason SJC received 10 Circle K awards at the NY State Convention. Cheryl Mantione and Tony Ventimiglia also served as state officers.

Orlando Nives...admitted into the Graduate School of Social Work at the State University of New York at Stony Brook.

Maria Ortiz...Grumman Scholarship recipient... selected to participate in the Summer Intern Program in the Lederle Division of American Cyanamid Company.

Lisa Ribaudo...admitted to seven prestigious dental schools, including Columbia University, the University of Pennsylvania, Tufts University, and New York University.

Volunteerism...on and off-campus programs flourished...blood drives...Earth Day...fund raisers for the homeless, a dialysis treatment center, Providence House, Muscular Dystrophy, and many others...letter writing campaign for troop support during the Persian Gulf War...serving as coaches for the Special Olympics.

SJC students...and yet, more than students...friends, neighbors, dedicated community leaders

S. George congratulates Delta Mu Delta inductees Frederick T. Shea, Chairman of the Board, alumna Maria Falconetti, and entrepreneur Clare Rose.

Nursing student examines young patient at a local clinic.

Numerous programs—both academic and extracurricular—highlighted the 1990-1991 year...enhancing personal and professional development and enriching student life.

Among the most notable:

The B.S. in Nursing Program...designed for registered nurses...received full accreditation from the National League for Nursing.

The Certificate in Human Resources...a 15-credit offering meeting the challenge of providing better-equipped managerial personnel in businesses, health agencies and service organizations.

Continuing Education Program..a stimulating new summer series of credit and non-credit courses for adults who wish to sharpen career skills or to pursue the creative arts.

Delta Mu Delta...the prestigious national honor society in Business Administration established a Chapter at SJC...members include students, others selected from the College community...based on academic excellence and citizenship.

A Math/Computer Science Major...a proposal for this new major for the Suffolk Campus was submitted to the New York State Education Department.

CAPITAL

The Santellas and the Seamans, long-time friends of SJC, take a break during golf outing.

S. George presents Frank Lourenso, Executive Vice President of Chemical Bank, with Distinguished Citizen Award at SJC's Eighth Annual Dinner Dance...which raised more than $242,000.

The success of the first three years of the five-year Capital Campaign is reflected in the fact that there has been an overall increase of 113% in pledges compared to the three-year pre-campaign period...including a 71% increase in foundation grants and a 429% increase in contributions made by "friends."

1990-1991 Highlights:

- Of the total goal of $5,000,000, more than $3,400,000 had been pledged by 6/30/91;
- The Alumni Goal—$1,000,000 in three years—has been reached and surpassed;
- The College received an anonymous gift of $300,000—the largest single donation in its 75-year history;
- A number of corporate grants were received, including a gift from Xerox to help support the "Experiences in Science" program, a $25,000 grant for scholarships, a gift from Chase Bank for the Clare Rose Playhouse, and $5,000 from Grumman for financial aid;
- The first SJC Golf Tournament raised more than $42,000;
- Margaret Wolfe '41 made a six-year pledge to the Campaign for the purpose of endowing a scholarship in memory of S. M. Clotilde Falvey.

Gift Clubs are an important way in which alumni and friends underline their support to the College. By enrolling in the gift club that best fits their capability, donors are participating in the St. Joseph's College vision for the future.

New Horizons Circle

The College's most prestigious gift club is the New Horizons Circle. Members of this group are alumni and friends who contribute at least $5,000 annually, including matching gifts.

The Trustees Circle

A distinguished gift club is the newly created Trustees Circle designation. Members of the Trustees Circle are those alumni and friends whose gift is a contribution of $2,500-$4,999 annually, including matching gifts.

The President's Circle

St. Joseph's prestigious gift club membership is given to alumni and friends contributing $1,000-$2,499 annually including matching gifts.

The Deans Circle

This club replaces the sustaining members of the Sigma Circle. Members of the Deans Circle are those alumni and friends contributing $500-$999 annually, including matching gifts.

Sigma Circle

Members of the Sigma Circle are those alumni and friends of the College contributing a gift of $100-$499 annually, including matching gifts.

Sponsors

Members of Sponsors are those alumni and friends of the College contributing a gift of up to $99 annually, including matching gifts.

DEAR FRIENDS:

1991-92 was eventful and exhilarating! It was both a time of enthusiastic celebration and reflective self-study--a time to look objectively, openly, and honestly at who we are, to recognize where we have come from, and to envision where we are going.

The Diamond Jubilee celebrations infused the year with a particularly joyous spirit. From October 6, 1991, when more than 700 alumni and friends gathered at Queen of All Saints Church to celebrate 75 years of excellence and service, and to honor eighteen faculty emeriti, to the enormously successful Golf Tournament held on June 29, 1992, the entire College community participated in a number of memorable events which are reviewed in the coming pages.

You may recall that we chose to launch the Jubilee Year in October 1991 rather than January, because the College officially "opened for business" on October 2, 1916 when the first classes were held. And, while the formal closing of the Jubilee was at the gala Dinner Dance in October 1992, I am sure that the dynamism and energy of this year will continue to inspire us. St. Joseph's College is 75 years young--and the best is yet to be!

The jubilee celebrations were punctuated by the final preparations for the Middle States Evaluation Visit, which took place March 1 - 4. The Middle States process provided an opportunity for us to reflect on our strengths and weaknesses, and to sharpen our focus as we move forward in the 90's. The major aspects of our selfstudy are highlighted in the following sections. It is very encouraging to discover that the Evaluation Team affirmed the insights we had reached about ourselves, and that they supported the general direction we set for the future. Their specific recommendations and suggestions will provide new challenges and opportunities for growth. I am grateful to all who helped bring this important enterprise to a successful conclusion.

From this time of celebration and reflection we have emerged with a clearer sense of the validity of our mission, and we face the future with energy, enthusiasm, and commitment.

Sincerely,

Sister George Aquin O'Connor, C.S.J.

President

Mission and Goals of St. Joseph's College

The mission of St. Joseph's College is to provide a strong academic and value-oriented education rooted in a liberal arts tradition that supports provision for career preparation and enhancement. The College aims in this way to prepare each student for a life characterized by integrity, intellectual and spiritual values, social responsibility, and service--a life that is worthy of the College's motto, "Esse non videri: To be, not to seem."

Independent and coeducational, St. Joseph's College provides affordable private education that serves a diverse population of academically eligible students who live within commuting distance of either the Brooklyn or Suffolk Campus.

St. Joseph's College affirms the dignity, freedom, and inherent value of each person. This affirmation is realized through a student-centered environment wherein the faculty's primary commitment is to excellence in teaching. In this open, supportive atmosphere, students are challenged to develop their full potential and are encouraged to acquire a spirit of inquiry and a joy in learning.

From SJC's Self-Study Report

Program and Curricula

Undoubtedly nothing is more central to the life of the College than its program and curricula. From the founding of the College in 1916, the administration and faculty have sought to provide students with a strong academic background rooted in the liberal arts, so as to equip them to live full and meaningful lives and to enable them to be positive contributing forces in the environment in which they live and work.

From SJC's Self-Study Report

Faculty

Faculty members are well prepared in their respective fields and are well suited to carry forward the educational goals of the College. In the process of hiring new faculty, care is taken by the Deans and the Academic Vice President to ensure that prospective additions to the faculty can embrace and will endeavor to carry out the mission of the College.

From SJC's Self-Study Report

Students and Student Life

The focus upon the student, as the College community fulfills its commitment to create a free atmosphere for learning and for holistic development, has been characteristic of St. Joseph's College from its beginning in 1916.

Although the College has two campuses and programs for adults as well as traditional age students, the common thrust is conscientiously to carry out the College's mission, accomplish its goals, and develop the potential of each and all of the students.

Governance, Organization, and Administration

The Board of Trustees is primarily concerned with the formation of policies consistent with the mission of the College and with decisions involving major investments of institutional resources. The implementation of Board policies and decisions is entrusted to the College administrators.

From SJC's Self-Study Report

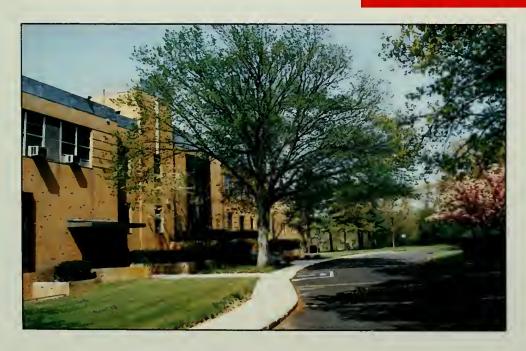

Trustees Mark Rose, Abby Kenigsberg and Peter Rogers.

Trustees prepare for meeting: Frederick T. Shea, Thomas A. Doherty, S. George Aquin, Stephen Hochberg, and Anthony Di Brita (background).

Instructional Resources and Plant

The College has made considerable effort in meeting the demands of the changing educational and social scene...Existing facilities provide overall strength in the support of the mission and goals of the College.

From SJC's Self-Study Report

Institutional Planning and Resource Allocation

An understanding of the institution's approach to planning is best realized through an exploration of the components of the planning process, particularly of the efforts of the College to base institutional planning on a free flow of information among faculty, students, and administrators.

From SJC's Self-Study Report

The college--wide Planning Committee...made up of administrators, faculty and staff.

Gift Clubs are an important way in which alumni and friends underline their support to the College. By enrolling in the gift club that best fits their capability, donors are participating in the St. Joseph's College vision for the future. Membership in the gift clubs is annual, based on the College's fiscal year, July 1 to June 30.

New Horizons Circle

The College's most prestigious gift club is the New Horizons Circle. Members of this group are alumni and friends who contribute at least $5,000 annually, including matching gifts.

The Trustees Circle

A distinguished gift club is the newly created Trustees Circle designation. Members of the Trustees Circle are those alumni and friends whose gift is a contribution of $2,500-$4,999 annually, including matching gifts.

The President's Circle

St. Joseph's prestigious gift club membership is given to alumni and friends contributing $1,000-$2,499 annually including matching gifts.

The Deans Circle

This club replaces the sustaining members of the Sigma Circle. Members of the Deans Circle are those alumni and friends contributing $500-$999 annually, including matching gifts.

Sigma Circle

Members of the Sigma Circle are those alumni and friends of the College contributing a gift of $100-$499 annually, including matching gifts.

Sponsors

Members of Sponsors are those alumni and friends of the College contributing a gift of up to $99 annually, including matching gifts.

Past Presidents

Bishop Charles E. McDonnell, on the occasion of the founding of the College...

"The need for such an institution has long existed, and I feel sure that this announcement will meet with the full approbation of the clergy and laity alike. The tendency to materialism in education at the present day must be met by sound religious teaching."

Archbishop Thomas Molloy, on the 25th anniversary of the College...

"The students of today and of the future when they read the record of St. Joseph's modest beginning; its sound, steady, systematic development as an educational agency; its sanctifying, cultural, socializing influence upon Christian womanhood, will undoubtedly enjoy a sense of pardonable pride in having her as their Alma Mater."

Monsignor William T. Dillon...

"A long career of teaching youth has left me with the immutable conviction that it is fundamentally honest, indisputably ideal, and transcendentally generous. I have more faith this hour than I did a generation ago...It has cost me much to keep that faith, but it has been worth it all."

Sister Vincent Thérèse Tuohy...

"Does not the devoted loyalty of these men and women (faculty) dedicated to the task of the Christian formation of young people, bring a rich reward to the community, the institution and to the students as well? Inspired with a deep sense of their social vocation, these professors strive for the development of a true Christian humanism whose roots are deeper than the mere study of the humanities."

As Chairman of the Board of Trustees of St. Joseph's College, I am proud to announce the successful completion of the New Horizons Capital Campaign. This achievement is particularly noteworthy since the 5 million dollar, 5-year campaign--the most ambitious fund-raising effort in the College's history-was launched in July 1988, just as the local and national economies were beginning a severe downturn. I have no doubt that the positive response from so many alumni and friends, as well as from the corporate community, was rooted in the great respect which St. Joseph's College has enjoyed among its constituencies for more than 75 years.

The hard work and dedication of many people contributed to the success of the campaign, and first among them, of course, is Sister George Aquin. Her dynamic leadership inspired every member of the Board of Trustees and the Steering Committee, and her unflagging optimism made us all believe we would reach our goal...and she was right. My fellow trustees also made a tremendous effort and shared, not only their personal resources, but also their time and expertise. I want to thank each and every one. And, of course, the benefactors of St. Joseph's College who are acknowledged in the latter section of this report, have earned our heartfelt gratitude. Their generosity enabled us to surpass our goal; their enthusiasm inspires us to look to new opportunities for St. Joseph's continued growth and development.

As you enjoy the following pictorial review of the campaign, we hope you share our sense of achievement because, quite simply, we could not have done it without you.

Sincerely,

Thomas A. Doherty Chairman of the Board

A Message from the President...

nd so we rejoice that the New Horizons Capital Campaign has come to an end — and a most successful one at that. When we first planted the seed of a major fund-raising project, we were not sure it would take root, much less burst into bloom. But here we are five years later, with a magnificent new library in Patchogue, lovely renovated areas in Brooklyn, and hundreds of students benefitting from our scholarship and financial aid programs.

I wish I could think of a new and creative way to say "Thank You", because the words alone really do not express my heartfelt gratitude. Hopefully, my prayers will be more eloquent.

Each ending is, of course, also a beginning. The successful conclusion of the New Horizons Campaign brings us to a new moment in the history of the College. In fact, we are already preparing the soil for new planting...as we continue the "adventure" which is St. Joseph's College. There are traditions to nurture, there are dreams to dream, there are goals to reach.

As we look forward to the Year 2000 and beyond, we are confident that you will be with us in that future...to enrich the lives of our students...to help them become what their God created them to be.

Sister George Aquin O'Connor, C.S.J. President

Donor Listing 1992 - 1993

Gift Clubs are an important way in which alumni and friends underline their support to the College. By enrolling in the gift club that best fits their capability, donors are participating in the St. Joseph's College vision for the future. Membership in the gift clubs is annual, based on the College's fiscal year, July 1 to June 30.

New Horizons Circle

The College's most prestigious gift club is the New Horizons Circle. Members of this group are alumni and friends who contribute at least $5,000 annually, including matching gifts.

The Trustees Circle

A distinguished gift club is the recently created Trustees Circle designation. Members of the Trustees Circle are those alumni and friends whose gift is a contribution of $2,500-$4,999 annually, including matching gifts.

The President's Circle

St. Joseph's prestigious gift club membership is given to alumni and friends contributing $1,000-$2,499 annually, including matching gifts.

The Deans Circle

This club replaces the sustaining members of the Sigma Circle. Members of the Deans Circle are those alumni and friends contributing $500-$999 annually, including matching gifts.

Sigma Circle

Members of the Sigma Circle are those alumni and friends of the College contributing a gift of $100-$499 annually, including matching gifts.

Sponsors

Members of Sponsors are those alumni and friends of the College contributing a gift of up to $99 annually, including matching gifts.

Directions

St. Joseph's College is setting out on an exciting phase of its history...

new ground will be broken...

challenges will be met...

1993-94

was a year of planning and collaboration, the foundation for new directions... a path to a bright future...

Dear Friends:

s I begin this year's President's Report, I am keenly aware that, although 1993-94 was not an anniversary year - there were no groundbreakings, or other extraordinary events - it was, nonetheless, a special year.

As enrollment figures leaped to 3,182 students, an overall increase of 9% over the previous year, every constituency of the College responded to this challenge with energy, enthusiasm and creativity.

This report can highlight only some of the ways in which members of the College community contributed their unique talents to foster academic excellence, to develop extracurricular programs, and to ensure financial stability. The contribution of each and every person is valued, and I hope that this representative "sampling" will express the gratitude we teel to all.

TRUSTEES

Throughout this year, the Board of Trustees has exercised its fiduciary responsibilities with typical vigor and dedication. Their generous support of our development program, their commitment to the mission of the College, and their prudent guidance of its growth were key factors in the success we enjoyed.

In addition to the regular activities of the Board, 1993-94 saw two ad-hoc committees hard at work from October through May.

The first, the Vision Committee, had as its task the articulation of a vision which would be inspirational, and which would serve as a guide for decision making. The Board was aware that our recent growth had brought us to a critical moment, and the Vision Committee sought to assess the current situation and anticipate future needs against the backdrop of the College's stated mission and goals.

A direct outcome of their efforts was the decision to engage an architectural firm to prepare a Ten-year Master Plan for the Suffolk campus.

The Vision Committee was also concerned that the needs of the Brooklyn campus be carefully reviewed. Although no major capital program is projected for that campus, a systematic study of the physical facilities in Brooklyn has been launched, and a number of refurbishment projects will be undertaken, particularly in the Administration Building.

We have many reasons to be grateful to the members of the Vision Committee...by responding effectively to the charge which was given them, they have set us on a new path. I am confident that the direction they have given will lead us into a bright future.

The second ad-hoc committee of the Board devoted its time and energies to a review of the College's governance. It included representatives of the trustees, faculty and administration and served as a steering committee for a year-long, College-wide study of governance.

Their work involved a systematic analysis of existing structures and documents and an evaluation of their effectiveness. A focal point of the effort was clarification of the roles in governance of faculty, administration, and trustees, and the interaction among them. Several meetings were held throughout the year, and the trustee members of the committee attended the College-wide

Governance Committee 1994

Planning Day in March, at which time there was opportunity for open discussion and exchange.

By the time of its last meeting in May, the members of the committee had agreed that opportunities for ongoing communication between faculty and trustees should continue to be provided, and even strengthened. Ad-hoc committees designed to respond to changing or developing needs will continue to be utilized, and a regular channel of communication could be established. For example, it was suggested that a member of the Trustee Finance Committee might meet once a year with the Faculty Committee on Rank, Tenure and Faculty Interests.

The entire College community is indebted to the members of the Governance Study Committee for their leadership of this very important project.

The trustees also played a key role in the physical expansion of the Patchogue campus, bringing a complex real estate negotiation to a successful conclusion. In June 1994, the College acquired a significant parcel of land abutting the campus. The increase in acreage is not great, but the purchase at this time was a major coup, since it opens up new possibilities and alternatives as we develop the Ten-year Master Plan. To all who contributed their time and expertise to bring about this happy outcome, may I extend our heartfelt gratitude.

Changes in Board Membership

Another Trustee priority was Board development. The past year has seen the addition of four outstanding members: Frank Lourenso, Executive Vice President of Chemical Bank; Peter C. Maguire, President of PCM Construction; Paula Hooper-Mayhew, Ph.D., Academic Vice President and Dean, Marymount Manhattan College; and Sister Kathleen McKinney, C.S.J., Assistant Principal of Fontbonne Hall Academy. Each brings a new dimension of expertise and creative leadership.

Peter C. Maguire

Paula Hooper-Mayhew

In January 1994, the College community joined the family and friends of trustee John J. Kearney, Jr., in mourning his death. Jack had been a member of SJC's Board since 1976, and had served effectively and faithfully on the Finance Committee for many years. His wise and prudent counsel will be missed by his colleagues on the Board, as will his guick wit and generous good nature.

PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT

The 1993-94 fiscal year was one of planning and productivity in the areas of academic programs for both Arts and Sciences and the Division of General Studies.

In highlighting the development of the first program, I am pleased to report that its implementation will place St. Joseph's College on new high ground. It will extend our tradition of excellence in teacher preparation into graduate study... the step so long desired by our alumni and current students.

Sister Miriam and Sister Frances

After months of research, interviews and detailed planning, Sister Frances Solano Carmody and Sister Miriam Honora Corr, Associate Professors of Child Study, developed a proposal for a Master's Degree Program in Infant Toddler Therapeutic Education.

This innovative offering responds to the growing need for well-prepared teachers in early intervention programs for at-risk infants and toddlers and their parents.

It includes core requirements of collaborative communication, language development, diversity and disorders, health and medical problems, and parenting and family dynamics. In addition, specialization requirements are offered, such as assessments of infants and toddlers with special needs, adaptive curricula strategies, neurological development training, and legal implications for administering programs for infants and toddlers.

A field experience practicum is featured as a strong element of the program. Completion of the program leads to a master's degree in special education and New York State teaching certification in special education.

Not to be outdone, the Business Department was planning for its students' post-graduate aspirations as well. Through a special agreement with Long Island University, the Fast-Track MBA Program has been introduced for graduates of the Patchogue campus. Under this agreement, all holders enhanced by additional keyboard work stations donated by The D'Adddario Foundation.

"Signing Day" - MBA Fast-Track Program with Long Island University of an SJC bachelor's degree in business administration or accounting, who have met certain other requirements, will be admitted to LIU's uniquely designed MBA program, which enables qualified students to complete the MBA in 16 months. Another very attractive feature of this arrangement is the one-third tuition discount which is offered to SJC alumni who enroll in graduate programs at LIU's Brentwood campus.

In the Division of General Studies, the most revolutionary of its programs to be approved by the New York State Education Department during the past fiscal year was the Weekend College Trimester Program at the Patchogue campus. This accelerated program allows students to attend classes approximately every third weekend in a trimester schedule...earning up to 27 credits per year.

It aims to provide adult students with an opportunity for personal and career development. Student achievement is fostered in an environment that encourages self-directed learning supported by a structure of relationships and on-going advisement.

At the outset, the program is limited to the B.S. degree in Health Administration or Management of Human Resources. Also, certificates are available in Management, Human Resources, Leadership & Supervision, Data & Information Processing, Home Care Administration, and Health Care Management.

We are most grateful to Carolyn Gallogly, Assistant Dean of the Division of General Studies, for her leadership in bringing this program through the many steps and stages necessary for NYSED approval and for practical implementation.

Carolyn Gallogly

In Brooklyn, General Studies was busy planning a newly-structured Criminology/Criminal Justice certificate to be offered nights and weekends. The primary audience for this certificate will be the over 200 law enforcement professionals taking courses at the Brooklyn campus.

Another offering, a PBS video cassette pilot program, was introduced to adult learners. It was designed for motivated and self-disciplined students at both campuses to be taken on an independent study basis. While the videotapes were the major focus of each course, faculty members augmented them with relevant readings and supplementary materials. Students were typically required to come to the College for an introductory session and examinations. The program was a success and will be continued and expanded.

From adult learners, we move to "Especially for Children and Young People". This program, designed for children in grades K-6, began in Summer '93 with 44 students. Its offerings included reading and math assistance and enrichment topics. This initial success led to Saturday morning classes during the fall and spring semesters. According to Pat Russo, Program Coordinator, Summer '94 enrollment topped off at 152...a dramatic one-year increase...with additional classes in art, science, and computer skills for grades K-12.

As we continued to experience the ever-burgeoning role of the computer in both our academic and administrative operations, we found it necessary to begin to consider some modifications of our computer systems.

Academic computer facilities at both campuses were upgraded to accommodate the latest networking systems. Paramount in this effort was Sister Jane Fritz, Department of Mathematics/Computer Science, who chaired the committee to design, purchase and implement a Local Area Network (LAN) for the instructional computing facilities of the Mathematics/Computer Science and Business Departments. Due to her untiring efforts with LAN Associates and TKM Cable, an effective network has been designed and implemented.

Currently, on the administrative side, St. Joseph's College has an integrated administrative software and multi-user computer system which allows many offices to share and update important data in the Admissions, Business, Development, Financial Aid, and Registrar's Offices. Many offices also have separate desktop capabilities.

Under the guidance of Brother Ferdinand Vogrin, O.S.F., Ph.D., Director of Computing Services, we have begun the process of attaching these separate computers into a network. This will increase individual efficiency, minimize the purchase of some types of equipment, add flexibility, and improve data security.

In addition, this new system will aid in the study of new software to replace that currently used on the aging multi-user computer system.

FACULTY

St. Joseph's has never lost sight of the absolute importance of the classroom experience. Last year, as in every year since the College's founding, the primary commitment of the faculty was to excellent teaching. Preparation and presentation were emphasized, and the success of the faculty's efforts is reflected in the successes of their students, which will be noted in another section of this report.

The faculty's focus on teaching did not diminish their enthusiasm for their disciplines, however, and this past year saw many of them engaged in research, travel...to conferences near and far...and participation in scholarly enterprises. Let me feature just a few of their many interesting activities.

A highlight of the year was the Master Teacher Seminar, held in May, at St. Joseph's Villa, Hampton Bays. Twenty members of SJC's faculty spent three days working together in an intensive program focused on creative teaching methodologies. Designed to build on strengths, the seminar enables experienced teachers to enrich each other, and to challenge each other, in an informal but productive atmosphere. Those who participated in the seminar found it extremely enjoyable and worthwhile. No doubt, a new tradition has been born at SJC.

Facilitators Carolyn Gramling (Suffolk Community College), Dr Marilyn Kalyvas and S. Miriam Honora Corr (both from SJC), and Peter Herron (SCC) are joined by S. Jean Marie Amore (center), Academic Dean.

Several members of the faculty completed their doctoral studies this past year. Congratulations to:

Marie Fitzgerald, D.Phil. in Education from the State University of New York at Stony Brook.

Jill Levin, Ed.D. in Child and Youth Studies from Nova Southeastern University.

Ted McGlone, Ph.D. in Economics from the University of Utah.

Gretchen Owens, Ph.D. in Social Psychology from State University of New York at Stony Brook.

At the last faculty meeting in May 1994, five members of the faculty were honored for having completed twenty-five years of dedicated service to the College. This stalwart group included Sister Margaret Buckley, Ed.D., Academic Dean and Professor of Education; Sister Josephine Marie Cavanaugh, S.T.D., Professor of Religious Studies; Margaret Jennings, Ph.D., Professor of English; Sister Helen Kearney, Ph.D., Director of the Dillon Child Study Center; and Eileen Luongo O'Donnell, M.S., Head Teacher at the Dillon Child Study Center. To each and all -- congratulations and thanks.

Dillon Child Study faculty provided training to "Project Chance/Project Life" staff members throughout the year. These programs teach young parents life skills and are based in the Ft. Greene Houses in Brooklyn.

Kenneth Bauzon, Ph.D., Assistant Protessor of Political Science, presented a paper entitled "Between Secession and Reconciliation in the Southern Philippines: The Bangsa Moro Movement at the Crossroads" at the Annual Meeting of the Midwest Sociological Society in

S. Helen Kearney (center), meets with Dillon staff members to discuss training sessions for Project Chance/Project Life.

St. Louis. Dr. Bauzon, together with Raymond D'Angelo, Ph.D., also coordinated a highly successful lecture series at the Brooklyn Campus on a number of challenging topics in political science.

Lorraine Boykin, Ed.D., Associate Professor of Community Health, was chairperson of a session on "Spirituality and Gerontology in Higher Education" at the 20th Annual Meeting of the Association of Gerontology in Higher Education held in Cleveland. Dr. Boykin also conducted a three-day Stress Management Conference sponsored by the National Institute of Health.

Stanley F. Fox

Karen Brunschwig, M.A., Instructor of Spanish, published "Making Connections with Whole-Class Interaction Activities" in Hispania, the journal of the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese.

Stanley F. Fox, Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Business, published "Can Socially Responsible Investing Provide Acceptable Long Term Rates of Return?" in the Journal of Ethical Studies, October 1993.

Dorothy A. Kelly, D.A., Assistant Professor of Speech Communication, authored three articles for the Advance Newsmagazine for Speech-Language Pathology, as well as a book titled The Central Auditory Processing Disordered Child: A Practical Guide to Understanding and Intervention.

In May, over 30 participants graduated from the College Entry Program, directed by S. Kathleen Loughlin, Ed.D., of the Division of General Studies. Funded by New York State through the office of Senator Velmanette Montgomery, the program targeted adults, most of whom did not have prior college experience and were affiliated with the Marcus Garvey Head Start Program in Bedford-Stuyvesant.

Sister Mary Maier, Ph.D., Professor of Chemistry, was reelected Secretary for the New York Section of the American Chemical Society and served as Chairperson of the Chemical Education Committee of the ACS. In addition, Sister presented a paper on polymer chemistry at the 1994 Middle Atlantic Regional Meeting of the ACS in Baltimore. Her new program for middle school girls, "Expanding Your Horizons", was offered for the first time in the New York area this past May.

Sister Loretta McGrann, Ph.D., Associate Professor of English, delivered a paper on "Toni Morrison and the Trinitarian Mysteries" at the Conference on Religion and Literature held at Le Moyne College in Syracuse. She also was a presenter at S. Patricia Manning, Chairperson of the Fine the Christianity and Literature Conference at C.W. Post College, speaking on "Toni Morrison and the Biblical Tradition". Fine Arts Department trip to Europe

In addition, Sister chaired a panel on 18th century African-American Literature at the Yale Center for the Humanities.

Sister Grace Edna Rowland, Chairperson of the Speech Department and Director of the Clare Rose Playhouse, continued to direct "Spotlight on Children", a program for children aged 5 to 9 which is designed to increase self-esteem through dramatic expression. In March, more than 1,500 spectators attended a Celebrity Fund Raiser Basketball Game which featured the New York Giants, WBLI 106.1 FM, and the Patchague Lions Club to raise funds for the program.

David Seppala-Holtzman, D.Phil., Associate Professor of Mathematics, was elected to the position of Vice Chair for the Mathematics Section of the New York Academy of Science.

Richard J. Torz, Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Economics, chaired a session on industrial organization at the Eastern Economic Association Meeting in Boston, MA. He was also a paper discussant for sessions on financial economics and the economics of banking.

George Giuliani Instructor of Psychology

A Liberal Arts Colloquium was initiated at the Patchogue campus. This program provided opportunities for faculty to share original scholarship and/or creative works-in-progress with their colleagues and to receive responses and suggestions from a multi-disciplined perspective.

This brief list of faculty activities and achievements is obviously but the tip of the iceberg. For the many ways in which the faculty contribute to the life of the College, to the advancement of their disciplines, and to their students, we are very grateful.

STUDENTS

St. Joseph's students are busy people. While pursuing demanding academic programs, most work at least part-time, and some carry significant family responsibilities. Yet, many give generously of their time and talent to extra-curricular activities on campus or volunteer work in their communities. Each new generation of students brings its own unique, refreshing and enhancing character. This year, our students received many academic awards...an especially large number were granted scholarships, fellowships, and assistantships to medical schools, law schools, schools of dentistry, and other graduate programs. Several graduates were awarded multiple scholarship opportunities.

Kaye Nembhard

From the Brooklyn Campus, Kaye Nembhard was admitted to six prestigious medical schools and Margaret Drozdowski had a choice of four dental schools.

In Patchogue, Andrew Small was acknowledged for scoring among the top 1% of all those taking the CPA exam throughout the United States. Richard A. Walz, the Valedictorian of the Class of '94, was admitted to six law schools and will be attending Tulane University School of Law.

Two noteworthy representatives of the adult students in the Division of General Studies are Hazel Scott-Downing, R.N., and Edward W. Smith. Ms. Scott-Downing, the Valedictorian of her class in Brooklyn and a Distinguished Graduate Award winner, is pursuing a master's degree in public health and hopes to develop programs that will make health care more accessible to the community.

Hazel Scott-Downing, R.N.

Mr. Smith, the G.S. Salutatorian in Patchogue, is Vice President in the Wholesale Services Division of Key Bank. He is enrolled in the Master of Arts in Theology Program at the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception in Huntington.

Several undergraduates were cited for achievements in social science. Judith Ashley, a junior, was accepted into the 1994 Honors Program of the American Sociological Associates. Junior Mitchell Cornet was admitted to the 1994 Summer Program in Policy Skills at the University of Michigan Institute of Public Policy Studies at Ann Arbor, a program administered by the Woodrow Wilson Fellowship Foundation.

Other students in Patchogue were involved in highly technical computer programs. An internship program in Computer Science was begun to provide actual computer experience in a business environment; Michael Schmutz, a Mathematics/Computer Science major, was involved in computer networking at Grumman Corporation and Staff Builders.

Four students attended the National Educational Computer Conference (NECC'94), held in Boston in June. The theme was "Recreating the Revolution" and focused on the innovative uses of educational technology in grades K-12, as well as teacher education programs.

In addition to their academic accomplishments, our students have received a number of national, state and local commendations for their volunteer efforts.

Patchogue students "sleep out for the homeless".

Community outreach is an important piece of the SJC experience. All student organizations are expected to include volunteer activities as part of their annual program, and many charitable organizations have been the beneficiaries of their efforts. For example, a Dance-a-Thon was held at the Patchogue campus to raise funds for Hope House Ministries of Port Jefferson. In addition, under the sponsorship of the Psychology Club, students participated in the third annual "Homeless Sleepout". This event, which raises funds and increases awareness, benefitted Wyandanch Homes and Property Development

Corp. Peter J. Barnett, a Lecturer in Religious Studies at SJC, is Executive Director of Wyandanch Home and Property Development Corp.

The Child Study Club in Patchogue sponsored a Children's Holiday Fair, raising a substantial sum for the Adopt-A-Family program. In Brooklyn, the Child Study Club focused on literacy, holding both a book drive and a magazine drive. That campus' Circle K Club held its Second Annual Dance-a-Thon to benefit ESOPUS, a camp for children with special needs, and Orbus, a reading program sponsored by Queen of All Saints School. Over $1,000 was raised for these two projects. The traditional holiday food, toy, and clothing drives were continued and expanded at both campuses.

We are proud of each and every one of our students, 609 of whom joined the ranks of alumni in June...enriching the tradition of excellence and dedication.

ALUMNI

Alumni continue to be a source of tremendous support and encouragement. Over 12,000 SJC graduates serve our communities in the areas of medicine, law, education, science, gerontology, social work, government and the arts.

On July 1, 1993, Mary Elizabeth McLoughlin Farrell '35, officially resigned her position as Director of Alumni Relations after more than twenty-five years of superb, dedicated service. On behalf of all at SJC, I extend our deepest thanks and warmest best wishes.

Margaret Dwyer Minson `70, has assumed the role and responsibilities of that office and has brought her own creative style to this demanding post. She has sought to revive interest in regional activities by organizing receptions at the homes of alumni.

Margaret Duyer Minson 70

Since March 1993, eight events have been heldfrom Manhattan to Ft. Lauderdale, Florida. Over 150 alumni from all eight decades of graduates have met, shared memories, renewed friendships, and made new friends.

In the words of Dorothy Devereaux Ryan '29, "I had a wonderful time. It was so creative to start something like this. I had no idea there were so many of us in Manhattan. I was amazed by the achievements of the SJC alumni."

Christine Inguanta Cole '91 and Sharon Scaturro Justvig '79 at the alumni reception at the home of Mary McGrover Peyton in Garden City.

We look forward to a continuation of these events...we are anxious to continue our journey and reach out to alumni across the country and around the world.

Other alumni gatherings drew good-sized crowds...the Fall and Spring Luncheons, the Golden Graduates Reception, theatre parties at the Clare Rose Playhouse, and a variety of seminars, phonathons, homecomings, and donor receptions.

Mid-year, Jo-Ann During joined us in Patchogue as Senior Administrative Assistant for Alumni Relations to facilitate the development of the Suffolk Chapter of the Alumni Association. A multitalented professional, she and Margaret are collaborating on a number of new projects which will encourage alumni participation in the years to come.

FUND-RAISING

Fund-raising efforts this past year were successful and pointed the way to some new directions. Over $1,187,000 was raised in pledges representing a 27% increase over 1992-93.

One direction is the focus on endowment. In September, The Louis Calder Foundation awarded the College a $250,000, three-year grant which must be matched by $500,000 in College-raised funds by September 1996. The income generated by the $750,000 endowment will be used to aid financially disadvantaged, academically talented students who are residents of New York City and whose total family annual income is $25,000 or less. As of June 30, 1993, $224,330 has been raised in gifts and pledges. Clearly, we must concentrate on meeting this challenge in the years ahead. Currently, 21 students are assisted through this funding with many more candidates in this category awaiting help.

S. George Aquin welcomes Ed and Doris Powers and Maureen and Duncan Fraser to a reception for major donors.

Other significant grants received this past year include a $20,000 grant for scholarships for students enrolled in child study or secondary education programs from NYNEX (formerly New York Telephone) and a $50,000 ten-year grant from King Kullen for scholarships for business administration majors.

Special events continued to provide needed operating funds. The Eleventh Annual Dinner Dance grossed over $175,000; the Trustees Luncheon, held annually for the benefit of the Brooklyn campus, reached an all-time high - $20,090; and the Fourth Annual Golf Tournament, chaired by Jay Starr of Chase Manhattan Bank, gleaned more than $58,000 for the College.

Jesse Jay" Starr

Another type of gift was especially welcome this year -- the Suffolk campus received computer software and hardware from Business Computer Associates. Two other corporate benefactors, Pfizer and Witco, donated a total of over $14,000 in science equipment for the benfit of both campuses.

Thomas Cullen makes mitial payment toward the King Kullen Scholarship Endowment.

I pay special tribute to the alumni and students who worked as callers and assistants at the six phonathons held throughout last year. These events raised over $120,000 in pledges from alumni...a record-breaker in phonathon history. My thanks to all who participated...as volunteers, donors, or both.

I am proud to note that 27% of our total contributions come from alumni...a figure which compares favorably with the national average for all colleges and universities.

Another avenue of pursuit was an in-depth study of estate planning programs through which friends of the College might benefit themselves, their heirs, and future generations of St. Joseph's students. We will be providing much more detailed information on these planning options through our regular publications.

I could not conclude a discussion of fund raising without expressing the heartfelt gratitude of all at St. Joseph's for your tremendous response to our appeals for support. The donor pages of this report are an honor roll representing the personal sacrifices of hundreds of individuals and the corporate commitment of dozens of friends who recognize and join in the challenge of educating tomorrow's leaders. Your generosity has prepared the way.

God bless you,

Sincerely,

Sister George Aquin O'Connor, C.S.J.

Progress rooted in tradition...

St. Joseph's College 1994-1995 President's Report

The President's Message

Dear Friends,

Looking back over the past year, I am struck by how far we have come as a college community. Student enrollment continues to climb, we are in the midst of several major building projects, and we now look forward to our very first graduate program, the Master of Arts in Infant/Toddler Therapeutic Education. Sensitive to the needs of today's non-traditional students, St. Joseph's also took a bold step in 1994-95 by initiating weekend college classes at the Suffolk campus.

While we rejoice in this time of growth, we are keenly aware of the rich and treasured traditions upon which the College was founded. And so, in this year of new beginnings, we recognized programs that have endured the test of time, such as the laboratory preschool at the Brooklyn campus, which marked its 60th anniversary, and the Clare Rose Playhouse which completed its 10th successful season at the Patchogue campus.

Once again, I find it difficult to express adequately my gratitude to all of you who have made this wonderful journey possible. The progress we have made and the high quality of education we are able to offer are the direct results of your continued commitment and support. I am delighted to report to you that the Calder Challenge - a financial aid program for financially-disadvantaged students at the Brooklyn campus - has been met more than one year ahead of schedule, thanks to your generosity.

Striking a balance between tradition and progress is a formidable task. With your continued help and interest, we look confidently to the future, ever-mindful of the lessons and values of the past.

Sincerely,

S. George Aquin O'Connor, C.S.J.

President

PEOPLE

Achieving, sharing, working together...

The heart of any community is its people, and SIC's heartbeat is strong and healthy. Students, faculty and staff were busy throughout the year - garnering awards, spreading the good news about St. Joseph's, and carrying on the rich traditions and spirit that keep the College thriving. The men and women pictured here are just some of the many people who made 1994-95 special.

PROGRAMS

New and developing...

With final approval from New York State in March, the College prepared to launch its first graduate program. The Master of Arts in Infant/Toddler Therapeutic Education will be offered at the Patchogue campus beginning September, 1995. This past year also saw the debut of Patchogue's Accelerated Weekend College where students attend classes every third weekend in programs such as Health Administration and Management of Human Resources. Other new ventures in the Division of General Studies include Sunday classes in Brooklyn and a Certificate in Hospice available at both campuses. Meanwhile, "Especially for Children and Young People," an assistance and enrichment program in Patchogue, continues to grow, with summer '95 enrollment exceeding 150 students.

Lynda Pytell was one of the first students to sign up for St.

Joseph's new master's program. An SJC alumna who hopes to someday open her own early intervention center for at-risk infants and toddlers, Lynda is shown working with children at the Charles Drew Day Care Center in Queens Village, where she now teaches.

The popular weekend format appeals to working adult students wishing to pursue a degree or certificate.

Renovations to the gymnasium at the Brooklyn campus were completed last summer. The gym floor was refurbished with hard wood and freshly painted with SJC's logo, the locker rooms were redone, and new workout equipment was purchased.

FACILITIES

Renovating and expanding...

Work began last winter on Patchogue's new academic wing, scheduled to open in September, 1995. Formerly the gymnasium, the twostory wing will provide additional classroom space for the growing campus.

Patchogue's 48,250 sq. ft. athletic and recreation complex will include a 25-yard swimming pool; an elevated jogging track; a competition basketball court;

1994-95 was also a year of physical change and growth, with major building projects under way at both campuses. Brooklyn completed its gym renovation, while Patchogue began transforming its old gym into a modern academic wing. Patchogue also prepared to break ground on its new athletic center, phase two of St. Joseph's 10-year master plan for expansion and development.

EVENTS AND ACTIVITIES

Serving, celebrating, and reaching out...

From the Homeless Sleepout to the Spring Barbeque...from Christmas carolling to a Passover Seder...from the Dillon Center's 60th anniversary to the first Alumni Golf Tournament...1994-95 was a busy year. Among other highlights were the inauguration of a mentoring program with local school children, Clare Rose Playhouse's 10th anniversary, the Founder's Day Lecture, a Colloquium on Literature & Christianity and participation in various conferences, including student workshops in volunteerism in Arizona and California.

Sister Helen Kearney,
Director of the Dillon Child Study Center, examines proclamations received in recognition of the laboratory preschool's 60th anniversary. A poster exhibition depicting the preschool's history is on display in the 245 building.

Alumna, Christine Molter, performs at the Co-operating Teachers Luncheon last May.

Sister George presents the Distinguished Citizen Award to honoree Mark Rose at > St. Joseph's annual Dinner Dance last October.

The gala event raised over $200,000 for scholarship and financial aid programs at the College.

Dozens of hardy students, staff and faculty braved bone-chilling temperatures and spent the night camped out in cardboard boxes on the Callahan Library lawn during last November's "Homeless Sleepout," which raised funds for groups that aid the homeless.

Brooklyn students compete in one of the many fun events that took place during the Science

Club's annual Harvest Festival, which was held to raise funds for the club's annual trip. This year, the students visited
Washington, DC.

The first recipients of SJC's "Non-Violence Award," presented last fall, were S. Helen Prejean (center), Pultizer Prize nominee and author of Dead Man Walking, and Carolyn McCarthy and Thomas McDermott, whose lives were tragically affected by the LIRR shooting.

Participants in St. Joseph's first Walkathon last April warm-up for their four-mile walk through Patchogue. The event, sponsored by the Suffolk Alumni Chapter, netted $8,000 for the Patchogue campus' building and scholarship funds.

he Aquinas Society is a special group of individuals who have included St. Joseph's College as a beneficiary through planned giving vehicles. Established in 1995, the Aquinas Society recognizes those who have made a long term investment in the future of St. Joseph's College. Membership is acknowledged with a beautiful certificate, a listing in the President's Report, and at an annual reception.

It was not difficult to determine a name for this prestigious group of donors. The Aquinas Society brings to mind St. Thomas Aquinas, a scholar known for academic excellence and the pursuit of truth...qualities we at the College hold very dear. Also, the name honors S. George Aquin, President of the College, whose dynamic leadership has brought St. Joseph's to this high point in its history and whose vision will ensure its preeminence far into the future.

To become a member of the Aquinas Society, notify the College in writing that you have included it in your estate plans through one of these vehicles: your will, a trust or annuity, or as the beneficiary of a life insurance policy. Inaugural members of the Aquinas Society:

Dear Friends:

This is truly an exciting time for us at St. Joseph's College. After years of hard work and careful planning, we now see the results of our efforts in the many new projects and programs that came to fruition in 1995-96. As we prepare to celebrate our eightieth anniversary, we take time to reflect upon our accomplishments, even as we busily lay the groundwork to meet the demands and challenges of the 21st century.

On the technological front, we have gone "on line" with the creation of SJC's very own Web site for inclusion on the Internet. On the cover of this report are some of the images that can be found at http://www.sjcny.edu - our official Internet address.

Our faithful friends continue to demonstrate their loyal support in so many ways-through participation in the annual fund, special events such as the dinner dance and the golf tournament, and now, through St. Joseph's College Planned Giving Program. This program, which includes a pooled income fund, individual charitable trusts, and other forms of estate planning, entitles donors to membership in the prestigious Aquinas Society.

The generosity of all our supporters, especially in response to my recent appeal, has lifted contributions over 1994-95 levels, and for this, I am most thankful. Despite this, the need is still great as overall enrollment continues to climb and the number of students requiring assistance increases.

We have come a long way since we opened the doors to our first class of students back in 1916, and we are justifiably proud of our many achievements. However, we recognize the ongoing nature of our mission as an educational institution. You have been with us in the past...please remain with us as our quest for excellence continues.

St. Joseph's College who make it all happen.
Our dedicated faculty continues to garner

Particularly noteworthy is St. Joseph's inclusion in a National Science Foundation award. This $2.8 million, 4-year grant was awarded to a consortium of faculty at ten colleges and universities in Brooklyn and on Long Island. The project, called the Long Island Consortium for Interconnected Learning in Quantitative Disciplines, is designed to develop innovative instruction and learning in mathematics and mathematically-based disciplines.

As we move ahead, taking strides to keep pace with innovative new programs and an ever-evolving technology, we cherish the faces, hearts, and minds that are at the core of our existence and that energize and motivate us to succeed.

Program development and enhancement continued in 1995-96. In Brooklyn, child study majors now have the option of earning an annotation in early childhood that can be added to their provisional New York State certification, providing them with a further area of specialization. Also in Brooklyn, the Division of General Studies has added an off-campus site at the MetroTech office complex in downtown Brooklyn. At Patchogue, the first where students may now pursue a B.A. in speech communication. The Division of General Studies expanded its programs by offering a certificate in marketing, advertising, and public relations, which may also be pursued through Arts &

SJC continues to grow both physically and in the area of technology. In the fall, we celebrated the opening of the new academic wing and broke ground for the state-of-the-art Athletic Center at the Patchogue Campus, complete with additional parking fields.

SJC President S. George Aquin O'Connor and then-Chairman of the Board of Trustees Thomas A. Doherty (third from right) join with local officials at a ribbon-cutting ceremony for Patchogue's new academic wing last September.

In Brooklyn, a second computer lab was constructed, and the original lab was substantially upgraded with the addition of new equipment. Meanwhile, we began working with CMDS, our administrative software provider, to modernize our current internal computer system and to strengthen the communications link between the two campuses. We also took steps to go "on line" by preparing SJC's own Home Page and Web site for inclusion on the Internet. Look us up at http://www.sjcny.edu.

Student Government leaders Jennifer Schroeder (Patchogue) and Freddy Ortiz (Brooklyn) present flowers to the 1995 recipient of SJC's Distinguished Citizen Award, Brooklyn alumna Dorothy Bloodgood Kennedy, at the October dinner dance held in her honor. Brooklyn students Michael Warner, Brendan Mohan, Adam Cohen and Jorge Pena collect bags of groceries donated as part of a holiday food drive sponsored by Psi Phi Omega.

Suffolk Academic Dean S. Loretta McGrann presents SJC's second annual "Esse Non Videri" Award for Non-Violence to Det. Steven McDonald, the NYC police officer who was shot and paralyzed in the line of duty ten years ago.

SJC was on the go again, marking milestones, recognizing achievements, demonstrating community spirit, and raising awareness. The SJC family joined in a memorial service in Patchogue for S. Virginia Therese Callahan, a driving force in the growth and development of the Suffolk Campus from 1976 until her death in 1985. In Brooklyn, members of the Psi Phi Omega fraternity pitched in to help paint Queen of All Saints Grammar School.

In a further outreach to the community, Brooklyn's Child Study Club and Campus Ministry formed a Teen Club for mentally-challenged teens, organizing such activities as a bowling party. The Second Annual Alumni Walkathon at the Patchogue Campus was a huge success, raising over $10,000 for scholarships and the new Athletic

he Aquinas Society is a special group of individuals who have included St. Joseph's College as a beneficiary through planned giving vehicles. Established in 1995, the Aquinas Society recognizes those who have made a long term investment in the future of St. Joseph's College. Membership is acknowledged with a beautiful certificate, a listing in the President's Report, and at an annual reception.

To become a member of the Aquinas Society, notify the College in writing that you have included it in your estate plans through one of these vehicles: your will, a trust or annuity, or as the beneficiary of a life insurance policy.

College, NY

For more than five decades, students, staff, colleagues, and friends have known the enthusiasm, zeal, and commitment of Sister George Aquin O'Connor for the mission and work of St. Joseph's College. On June 30, 1997, Sister George formally resigned as our President after 28 years of distinguished service. > With this 1996-1997 President's Report, we honor Sister George and share our memories and reflections of her vast contributions. As we celebrated our 80th anniversary, our milestones were many; our growth abundant. These accomplishments took vision, dedication, teamwork, and superior leadership — the leadership of Sister George. Her high standards and deep commitment are the hallmark of what St. Joseph's has become today — a world of high quality education and personal growth for students of all generations.

The Aquinas Society

The Aquinas Society is a special group of individuals who have included St. Joseph's College as a beneficiary through planned giving vehicles. Established in 1995, the Aquinas Society recognizes those who have made a long term investment in the future of St. Joseph's College. Membership is acknowledged with a beautiful certificate, a listing in the President's Report, and at an annual reception.

To become a member of the Aquinas Society, notify the College in writing that you have included it in your estate plans through one of these vehicles: your will, a trust or annuity, or as the beneficiary of life insurance policy.

If you would like more information on becoming a member of the Aquinas Society, please call the Development Office at (71%) 635-6880 or (616) 654-3602, Each inquiry will be held in strict confidence.

Dear Friends,

For twenty-eight years, as President of St. Joseph's College, I have had the wonderful experience of being part of an academic community of talented, dedicated educators and professionals. I have had an opportunity, given to few, of working closely with students, faculty, administrators, alumni, and the Board of Trustees, all of whom provided constant enthusiasm and support as we carried forward a common mission of guiding the College on a dynamic journey. The expansion to Suffolk County, the development of the campus in Patchogue, the introduction of the Division of General Studies for adult professionals, the broadening of academic options, and the resulting growth in student enrollment are just some of our accomplishments — all proving that with collaborative effort we can effectively meet new challenges. > As I leave the President's office, I am happy that I shall still be an active participant in the life of the College. In the role of liaison for government affairs and public policy, I shall continue to monitor trends and developments which will affect the future of the College. ➤ I wish to express my sincere gratitude to everyone who has contributed to the College's growth during these last years, and I am delighted by the selection of S. Elizabeth Hill, alumna, Class of 1964, as President. I am confident that, imbued as she is with the values which characterize SJC, she will lead a new generation in preserving a tradition of excellence while fostering innovative responses to the challenges ahead. ➤ And now, I invite you to read and enjoy the President's Report which reflects the 1996-1997 academic year — a year of activity, accomplishments, growth, and planning for the future.

Scales George S. George Aquin O'Connor, C.S.J.

St. Joseph's mission emphasizes education that extends well beyond the classroom. The following are highlights of the events that made 1996-1997 such a memorable time for the College — and the community it serves. Although different in purpose and scope, each event provided a forum for learning and sharing for all involved.

A Special Tribute to Sister George

IN 1969. St. Joseph's was a college for women only, with one campus, one division, and an enrollment of 570 students. Today, we have not only grown in numbers, but in diversity and depth. The College provides nearly 4,100 men and women with a wide array of programs on our main campus in Brooklyn and branch campus in Patchogue, Long Island. > Sister George came to St. Joseph's College as an

"Sister George was always an effective teacher and those qualities carried through into her administration. She had the ability to envision what needed to be done, to articulate and communicate that vision to a group of people, and to stir up enthusiasm so that others shared and worked towards a common goal."

S. Mary Florence Burns,
 Academic Vice President

Instructor of Sociology in 1946, and was appointed Chairperson of the Social Sciences Department in 1966. In 1968, she became a full Professor of Sociology and Anthropology, and in 1969 she became President. Her diverse strengths as a teacher, combined with her exceptional leadership qualities, made Sister George

St. Joseph's College becomes a co-ed institution

"Sister has been a source of inspiration since I was a student. She planted the seeds and nurtured my interest in working with people that propelled me into the field of social work. Her belief in me led to my teaching at the College for 10 years — something that I've always cherished, as it kept me close to the St. Joseph's community."

— Ann Sferrazza Mollica, '52,

former faculty member

the perfect choice. ➤ Early in her tenure as President, Sister George made several progressive decisions: to make the College co-educational; to establish a Division of General Studies; and to open a second campus in Suffolk County.

"While always committed to Brooklyn, she felt that there should be a second campus. She proposed that we explore Suffolk County, which at that time was the fastest growing county in New York State, with a large population who would soon be going to college. This initial interest led to the creation of the first coordinate campus in New York State, with two institutions sharing the same premises in Brentwood. Of course, the final outgrowth of this effort is the present Patchogue campus."

— S. Mary Florence Burns

"Sister was a woman ahead of her time. I remember when St. Joseph's became co-ed; she had her finger on the pulse of the ever-changing academic world by the programs she initiated at the College. She was right there, knowing what had to be done to keep the College thriving."

— Ann Sferrazza Mollica, '52

In 1979, the program at Brentwood evolved into the present four-year branch campus in Patchogue. Set on the grounds of the former Seton Hall High School, the new campus gave the College more than 27 acres on which to grow. ➤ During Sister George's tenure, extensive academic changes have enriched the curriculum. In 1974, the Division of General Studies was developed to accommodate the special needs of non-traditional students. Today. St. Joseph's offers 20 major fields of study and numerous pre-professional programs. In 1995, the College launched its first graduate program, the Master of Arts in Infant/Toddler Therapeutic Education. ➤ In addition to Sister George's

"I think the one word that can be used to identify Sister George is 'visionary.' She had the foresight to realize the importance of Adult Education, and then brought forth a program for the working professional. She identified the need and very effectively met it by developing the Division of General Studies at St. Joseph's College."

"Sister George was never an absentee President. Believing in hands-on work, she was always there showing her interest. With two campuses, Sister George would be on the road many a day. Because many of our faculty must teach in both locations, the example that Sister George set made them feel that the extra effort needed for the long commute was worthwhile."

commitment to academic excellence, she has played a major role in the College's fund-raising efforts, including the 1988 New Horizons Capital Campaign. Supported by a very special Board of Trustees and by dedicated and loyal colleagues, Sister George and her staff looked to the business community, to alumni, to friends of St. Joseph's — to all interested in further development of our college. ➤ In 1989, the Callahan Library at the Patchogue campus opened

"The five-year Capital Campaign was launched primarily to build the library in Patchogue, but money raised through the effort was also used for scholarships and to make alterations on the Brooklyn campus. It wasn't a simple task, and it its doors. Today, the library is fully computerized, contains 120,000 volumes, and provides access to more than 300 students at a time. A program of on-going renovations at the Brooklyn required daily attention on the part of Sister George, as well as much follow-up work by her staff. They were out there day after day, soliciting contributions. Sister George was really an exponent of collaboration; she established an atmosphere of cooperation. With respect to relations with the Board and outside people, she was, of course, terrific. She was always sensitive to the wishes and views of the faculty, as well as the needs and aspirations of the student body. I am not exaggerating when I call her a jewel. After 24 years, I can't think of any other person for whom I have higher regard than Sister George. I think everybody on the Board of Trustees feels the same way."

campus supplied students with much-needed facilities, including computer labs and such amenities as improved student longes. > For Sister George, raising funds for the College has always been a priority—but just as important has been her commitment to the community. From charitable events and activities to help those in need, to timely educational programs for the community to attend.

"We had a Circle K Club that would hold events, like dance-a-thons, to help raise money for the community. Around the holiday season there were always food drives and gift-giving to various organizations for children, homeless people, and cancer patients. I think this evolved from both the students and the administration. As students, we wanted to do things for the community. Sister George and her administration would never tell us what to do, but would always be excited about whatever we were doing and attend our events to show their support." — Temitope Fasoye, '94

Sister George's altruism has become an intrinsic part of St. Joseph's College.

During the past 28 years as President, Sister George has led St. Joseph's College through tremendous achievement and growth, while retaining a warm, personal environment. Students receive the same attention, care, and concern they did eight decades ago. Ensuring that the College would grow without losing touch with its roots and heritage was of the greatest importance to Sister George and her colleagues. > The opening of the new Athletic Center at the Patchogue campus this past spring was the latest manifestation of Sister George's commitment to fostering students' confidence and personal growth. From a virtually non-existent program. St. Joseph's intercollegiate athletics now boasts some 20 men's and women's teams. The expanding Athletic Departments look forward to a bright future in the WłAC & HMAC in Brooklyn and in Division HI of the NCAA in Patchogue. > As we move forward into the 21st century, Sister George's legacy will forever remain as the heart and soul of St. Joseph's. We will always deeply appreciate her memorable contributions.

"Sister George has always been a fierce proponent of Brooklyn and its virtues as a place to live and as a geographic area that historically welcomed those from other parts of the world. The downtown Brooklyn community in which St. Joseph's rests is a place where people tend to know each other and work in harmony towards mutual goals. For more than 25 years, Sister George has participated in a number of projects and has been very influential in joining the educational and cultural communities as a unified force for good."

— Brother Donald Sullivan, OSF, President Emeritus, St. Francis College Sister George's resignation is not a journey's end, but a new beginning. She will continue to be a strong advocate and advisor for St. Joseph's as we plan for the future with pride and confidence. Our new President, Sister Elizabeth Hill, is ideally suited to move into the position. Working closely with Sister George as her Executive Assistant for 17 years. Sister Elizabeth has been involved in virtually every area of administration, from policy development to fund-raising.

To ensure that Sister George will continue to be "right in the middle of things." St. Joseph's has dedicated the main building on the Patchogue campus to her and has renamed it in her honor. In addition, a scholarship fund has been established in her name.
We will always be reminded of Sister George's exemplary leadership as we encounter the many contributions she made toward creating the institution that is St. Joseph's today. Thank you, Sister George.

"I think a good part of Sister George's success can be credited to her deep respect for the gifts and abilities of others, to her conviction that everyone has something to contribute. She believed that if you bring people together to work for a common goal,

"The occasion with Sister George that I remember most is when I became a full-time faculty member — she took the time and effort to welcome me personally. How unique...a President with so much to do found the time to fit me into her schedule. Her philosophy, in terms of St. Joseph's, emphasized personalized service, not only with the students, but with the faculty as well."

you will draw the best out of them, and the project will benefit from that process. All through the years, she attributed each success to our collective efforts."

elected Presidem of St. Joseph's College As I REFLECT ON THE YEARS I have been privileged to know Sister George Aquin. I am inspired by the leadership and vision that she has given to St. Joseph's College. This remarkable woman led the College through momentous change while always focusing on the primary importance of students and their academic and spiritual growth. > As Sister George's former pupil, I recall her earing and compassionate manner — qualities that carried through into her administration. But it was her innovative spirit and keen intellect that enabled her to guide St. Joseph's into the future. As President, Sister George had the ability to view the College within the larger context of the educational world around her. With foresight and courage, she directed St. Joseph's through a series of important changes — becoming co-educational, adding a Division of General Studies, and developing a branch campus in Suffolk County. Long Island. These progressive modifications brought about diversity, not only in terms of people and numbers, but also in terms of educational options. > Supported by the Board of Trustees and alumni. Sister George undertook such projects as the construction of a library and a state-of-the-art athletic facility. She also worked with the business and corporate community to raise scholarship funds to assist many of our students. Above all, Sister appreciated the unique talents of every member of the College community, for she understood that the institution was enriched by the contribution of each person. > Standing at the dawn of a new century, we anticipate an ever-changing landscape in education which we must meet with creativity, imagination and strength. It is with much respect, gratitude and personal affection for Sister George that I assume my new role at St. Joseph's. What a great honor to have been named her successor, and an even greater challenge — one that I hope to meet with perception and vision.

The President's Message

Dear Friends,

My first year as President of St. Joseph's College has been a memorable and enriching experience. It has been a year of listening and learning; and, as symbolized by the beautiful original rendering on the cover of this report, a year of reaching out and connecting to a wide variety of audiences...a year of planning, to bridge past and future, hope and fulfillment.

Most importantly, it was a year in which I had the opportunity of working closely with every part of the college community—trustees, faculty, administrators, staff, students and alumni. Together, we prepared for a successful Middle States Association evaluation—a process which brought us into true partnership and which culminated in renewed affirmation of our educational mission. And, together, we have begun another round of planning to bring St. Joseph's College into the next millennium with enthusiasm.

If one were to ask what word would best describe my feelings at the end of this first year, I would have to respond "gratitude." Gratitude for the continued blessings of growth and expansion at both campuses...gratitude for the dedication and hard work of our faculty and staff which enriched the lives of our students...gratitude for the generosity and support exhibited by our alumni and friends as we met them at campus events or at receptions and gatherings held around the country...and gratitude for the leadership and creative energy of a dynamic Board of Trustees.

As you read through this report, which chronicles the 1997-98 academic year, I hope you will feel, as I did, the sense of community which empowered us and lifted us to a new level of accomplishment. Our "bridge" has been built on a strong foundation—your love, loyalty and support. Come, journey with us!

Thank you and God bless you.

Sincerely,

Sister Elizabeth A. Hill, C.S.J.

President

A pivotal change took place in July 1997 that will shape the future of St. Joseph's College. When S. Elizabeth A. Hill became the College's fifth president, succeeding S. George Aquin O'Connor, who held the position for 28 years, she accepted the mantle with grace and determination.

At her October 3rd inauguration, held at the Brooklyn Museum of Art and attended by over 400 invited guests, S. Elizabeth embraced the theme "the future will emerge from a fruitful dialectic between continuity and change."

In her inaugural address, S. Elizabeth reflected upon the values on which the College was founded 82 years ago, and set forth some of the goals for the future as we stand on the threshold of the new millennium. Some of these sentiments are shared on the following pages.

"I call on each member of the College community to join me in working together to assure that the College's great potential is realized."

President Emerita, S. George Aquin O'Connor, presents S. Elizabeth with the Presidential Medallion at

S. Elizabeth's formal inauguration on October 3.

S. Elizabeth visits with alumna Maureen McCarthy Hilly '61 and her husband, Joe. The Hillys established a $100,000 Charitable Unitrust with St. Joseph's as its beneficiary, with the hope that their gift will be double-matched by a total of $200,000 in estate planning contributions before December 31, 1998.

Adolescent Medicine at Mt. Sinai Hospital;
Dennis McCarthy, Sr. Partner, Asset
Management Associates, Inc.; and Joanne
Minieri, COO, Forest City Ratner
Companies, were elected to the Board at the October meeting, bringing the total number of members to 29, the largest ever.

Alumni and friends continued their support in many ways with fund-raising events, such as phonathons, golf outings, a walkathon, receptions and luncheons, as well as through individual gifts.

Alumnae Mary Frances McLoughlin Reilly '38, Margaret Kearney Coughlin '57 and May Whalen Gronell '45 with Bill Coughlin at an Alumni Reception at the Southward Ho! Country Club in Bay Shore.

Week-long inaugural activities included Presidential Concerts featuring soprano Mara Hazzard, who was accompanied by pianist Scott Nicholas.

Recognized for excellence in athletics and academics are Patchogue's Callahan Award recipients Heather Wheatley and John Sangiorgi, shown here with S. Elizabeth. In Brooklyn, athletes receiving the President's Award for Academic Excellence were Megan Kelly, Patrick O'Brien, and Rosanne Wahl.

Dorothy Kelly (speech communications) published her second book, A Winner's Workbook: Reproducible Activities for Children with Attention Deficit Disorder.

Responding to President Clinton's Initiative on Race, S. Elizabeth enlisted Rupert Campbell (business) to coordinate programs at both campuses to stimulate discussion about and improve race relations.

Thether within the confines of the campus, at off-site educational centers, or in the world at large, we seek to challenge our students on every level, hoping to instill in them a life-long thirst for knowledge.

Full-time faculty was increased by 8.7% in response to an enrollment increase of approximately 9%. Both in the classroom and out, faculty achieved and excelled. Many published books and articles, while others attended conferences, presented papers and conducted workshops. Those invited to chair or serve on prestigious committees and boards included:

S. Jane Fritz (math/computer science) named to the Exec. Committee of the L.I. Consortium for Interconnected Learning in Quantitative Disciplines; Mary Chance (accounting) appointed co-chair for the Cooperation with Educational Institutions Committee of the NYS Society of CPAs; Charles Dyon, Jr. (business/human resources) elected to the Board of Directors of the Hospice Care Network; and S. Helen Kearney, Dir. of the Dillon Child Study Center, asked to serve on the advisory board for the Universal PreK Program.

Faculty receiving recognition for outstanding work included: Catherine O'Callagahan (child study) recipient of Fordham University's Alumni Award for Outstanding Dissertation; S. Mary Maier (chemistry) named Science Educator of the Year by the Internat'l Woode Foundation; Morton Thompson (recreation) honored by the NYS Recreation and Parks Society; and Dr. Lorraine Boykin (comm. health/human services) recipient of a third Honorary Doctorate from the Medical School in Sri Lanka.

Students and alumni also excelled. Patchogue biology major

Ann Boccio was awarded a Hughes Research Fellowship from the Univ. of Illinois; Brooklyn's Charanjeet Jassal was selected to present his work in chemistry at the Nat'l Conference on Undergraduate Research in Maryland; and Patchogue alumna, Anna Gaeta
'98, was named Nurse of the Year by

The Foundation of NYS Nurses Association.

Individual athletes and teams enjoyed success by being named to all-star teams or winning championships. At Patchogue, women's softball led the country in batting as a team and in-team scoring; men's tennis won the Hudson Valley Men's Athletic Conference; men's soccer won the Hudson Valley Athletic Conference Tournament for the third consecutive year; and the women's volleyball team was the undefeated W.I.A.C. champion. Brooklyn welcomed a new women's basketball coach, Frank Carbone; and student Jarinyar Kanchanawong was elected to the W.I.A.C. All-Conference First Team in volleyball.

Anne chaired a session at the Brooklyn Reading Council's borough-wide conference in early spring.

SJC's Class of '98 was the largest ever totaling 985 students. At Patchogue, 179 students received their degrees at the College's first winter graduation in January. Above, at Brooklyn's General Studies commencement exercises, Dr. Maude Robinson and graduate Allison M. Palmer enjoy the festivities.

t. Joseph's College has been fortunate in developing some very strong ties to both the civic and corporate communities surrounding it, from the East End of Long Island to the outskirts of New York City.

Support continued in the form of grants, gifts, scholarships and donations from

Brooklyn Union, Con Edison, Chase Manhattan Bank, Ridgewood Savings Bank, The Roslyn Savings Foundation, King Kullen Grocery Co., the Brookhaven Business and Professional Women's Club, the Rotary Club of Patchogue, and the Brooklyn Benevolent Society...to name a few.

The Regrant/Decentralization Program of the Brooklyn Arts Council funded a performance series, supplementing a grant from Con Edison to market the series. Also at Brooklyn, The Chase Manhattan Foundation gave funds to the Dillon Center to continue a literacy program with Community School District 13. Pfizer and the Kiwanis Club of Brooklyn awarded grants enhancing the College's Experiences in Science program.

At Patchogue, State Senator Caesar
Trunzo obtained funds to renovate the D'Ecclesiis Auditorium, and to pay for equipment used in therapeutic recreation programs. Assemblywoman Debra Mazzarelli, a '90 alumna of SJC, obtained a NYS grant to purchase LCD data projectors.
The Microsoft Corporation awarded a major grant in the form of licenses to provide software, and the Swezey-Knapp Foundation sponsored the aerobics/dance room at the new Athletic Center.

Dominic Chang of Family Golf Centers received the College's Distinguished Citizen Award at the15th Annual Dinner Dance, which raised over $227,000 benefiting scholarship, financial aid and building programs.

The 21st Annual Trustees Luncheon at the Marco Polo Ristorante raised $15,000 to benefit the Brookyn Campus. Shown here with S. Elizabeth are the co-chairs: (I to r) William A. McKenna, Pres. and CEO, Ridgewood Savings Bank; Rochelle W. Evans, Pres., Webcom; and Anthony DiBrita, Sr. V.P., Brooklyn Union.

rom March 1 through 4, St. Joseph's was visited by an evaluation team from the Middle States Association of Colleges and Universities, which subsequently issued a positive report citing the College's high levels of professional competence within a creative and cordial environment.

While the review required the College to conduct a vigorous self-study and produce a formal report, SJC has always engaged in self-assessment in order to establish and address priorities and needs.

Over this past year, some areas have received special attention:

TECHNOLOGY

 Upgraded academic computer facilities to provide Internet access for all students and faculty.

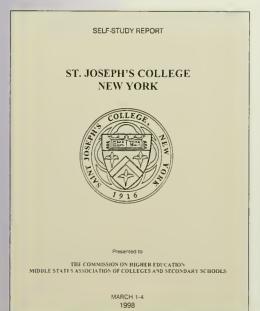

- Began planning for the establishment of a fully-integrated technological infrastructure which would upgrade academic and administrative computer capabilities, strengthen the link between the campuses and improve networking and Internet access to all members of the College community.
- Formed a Technology Committee to investigate the educational and administrative use of video conferencing and the possibility of introducing distance learning.
- Prepared administrators and staff for the new campus-wide computer software and data conversion program which will address the Y2K "carryover."
- Improved, redesigned and expanded the SJC website http://www.sjcny.edu.

FACILITIES

- Began study to renovate and upgrade science labs.
- Purchased 256 Clinton Ave. in Brooklyn to house offices, and began negotiations to purchase additional properties in Brooklyn and Patchogue.
- Installed new Cybex equipment in the Athletic Center at Patchoguc.

PROGRAMS

- Conferred the first graduate degrees in the College's history...the Master of Arts in Infant/Toddler Therapeutic Education.
- Undertook preliminary work in both Arts & Sciences and General Studies to establish new graduate programs at both campuses.

As part of a landscaping project that won honors from the Clinton Hill Society, a new sign was installed near the main entrance to the "245" building in Brooklyn.

 Enhanced community outreach by forming Councils for the Arts at both campuses to promote the fine and performing arts.

This past year's planning and creative activity will bear fruit well into the next century. We look forward to presenting future reports...unfolding the continuing adventure which is ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE.

Bishop John R. McGann and his sister, S. John Raymond McGann, Special Ass't to the Pres. at Patchogue, acknowledge applause during the dedication of the "McGann Conference Center" in recognition of the family's many years of service to the College.

The Aquinas Society

The Aquinas Society is a special group of individuals who have included St. Joseph's College as a beneficiary through planned giving vehicles. Established in 1995, the Aquinas Society recognizes those who have made a long term investment in the future of St. Joseph's College. Membership is acknowledged with a beautiful certificate, a listing in the President's Report, and at an annual reception.

To become a member of the Aquinas Society, notify the College in writing that you have included it in your estate plans through one of these vehicles: your will, a trust or annuity, IRA, or as the beneficiary of life insurance policy.

1998-99 PRESIDENT'S REPORT

The President's Message ~

Dear Friends.

As I write this introduction to the President's Report, I am struck by what a busy and productive year it has been for everyone at St. Joseph's College. Through hard work and dedication, we have met many of our goals, while continuing to plan for the future.

We have made progress in almost all areas of operation. Curriculum and academic programs were enhanced and expanded. We increased our full time faculty and added personnel with the creation of new positions. Business and community relations were strengthened, and our outreach efforts improved. In addition, we renovated and upgraded facilities at both campuses, including modifications to accommodate technological advances.

All of these changes are good, and we realize that the rate of change will grow ever faster—and we know we must be ready to respond. At the same time, we are keenly aware that, if change is to be fruitful, it must be organic. It must pertain to the basic values and traditions of the College. Each decision, therefore, has been made in relation to our mission statement, and to the five qualities or attributes we hope to instill in each of our graduates...integrity, intellectual and spiritual values, social responsibility, and service.

The importance of these values has not diminished over the years. Indeed, we consider them so central that we have chosen them as the unifying theme of this report. As you read the following pages, I invite you to consider the year's activities and accomplishments as they relate to those qualities, and I hope you will share our sense of pride, not only in what has been done, but in the way it has been done.

Thank you for your support, which has enabled us to come this far. I know we can count on you to assist us as we seek to make wise decisions in the future.

Sincerely,

Sisrie Elizabeth A. Hill, caj

Sister Elizabeth A. Hill, C.S.J. President

Student Life ~

We encourage our students to embrace the values we deem integral to a liberal arts education. Our success is evident in their many achievements and activities.

SJC's student body is a busy and dedicated one, participating in service projects, pursuing academic excellence, and competing in athletics.

Brooklyn's women's basketball team, the Lady Bears, huddle under the direction of head coach, Frank Carbone.

For the first time, SJC boasts a chapter of Lambda Pi Eta, the National Speech Communication Honor Society. Shown here are twelve of the fourteen Brooklyn students inducted into the Society with faculty adviser, Joseph D. Ross (far left), Assistant Professor of Speech Communication.

Patchogue juniors, Amanda Rogers (1) and Kelly Kowalek, were selected to study and conduct research at Columbia University's Biosphere 2 program in Arizona during the fall semester.

Five Brooklyn campus sophomore chemistry majors enrolled in the rigorous biochemistry sequence were accepted into summer research programs. Work was conducted in areas such as biochemical research, molecular biology, and medicine. Shown here are (1 to r): Raymond Dormevil, Yen Phong, Obosa Osawe and Tiffany Jules. Not pictured is Zarmeen Khan.

Together with members of S.T.A.R.S. (Students Taking an Active Role in Society), Patchogue's Assistant to the Director for Student Services Tom Wendt takes a break from packing food donations. Spearheaded by S. Suzanne Franck, Director of Campus Ministry, S.T.A.R.S. coordinates numerous service projects throughout the year.

Additional highlights demonstrating ways in which students contributed and achieved:

- Both campuses participated in outreach to victims of Hurricane George, with Brooklyn's Undergraduate Association receiving a letter from the Consulate General of the Republic of Haiti thanking them for their fund-raising efforts.
- Patchogue's Delta Psi Omega fraternity held their second annual charity basketball game donating the proceeds to the St. Mary's Children and Family Services in Syosset.
- Gary Smith, men's soccer coach at Patchogue, was named Soccer Coach of the Year in the Hudson Valley Men's Athletic Conference (HVMAC) for the 1998 season and led his team to its fourth consecutive crown as HVMAC soccer champs. Additionally, a record number of athletes were awarded All-Conference honors for fall sports.
- Delta Gamma Sigma, an honor society for students from the School of Adult and Professional Education and based on volunteer service and academic performance was introduced.
- Brooklyn students, Hector Cortes, Roseanne Forde and Alain Laurent participated in INROADS/New York City, Inc., a nationwide program that matches talented minority students with Fortune 500 companies.
- Patchogue student Gayle Garafola created a teaching unit based on the book The First Forest by John Gile that is being used as a model by teachers across the U.S.

With approval by the New York State Dept. of Education, the Master of Science in Management became Brooklyn's first graduate offering and Patchogue's second. It was developed by Dr. Thomas Travis, VP and Dean of Adult and Professional Education, and faculty from the Business Administration and Accounting, and Health Administration Departments. The 36-credit program is designed for working adults and offers concentrations in Organizational Management and Health Care Management. Assistant Professor of Accounting Mary Chance has been named Director of the program.

Expansion & Growth ~

From electing new trustees to the board, to the addition of a new graduate program, we continue to respond to the needs of the college community, moving forward in an effort to fulfill our commitment to excellence.

Three new members were welcomed to our Board of Trustees: Patricia C. Barron, Executive-in-Residence and Senior Fellow at New York University's Stern School of Business, William P. Tucker, Esq., partner in the firm of Golden, Wexler and Sarnese, and Frank F. Falco, Regional Vice President for Bell Atlantic.

Patchogue's Academic Dean S. Loretta McGrann conducts an English class via teleconferencing to students at Patchogue and Brooklyn. Although separated by over 60 miles, the two classrooms are brought together through the use of technology.

Changes, renovations and additions also included:

At Brooklyn:

- The initial phase of the modernization of science laboratories, including seven biology and chemistry labs and four related rooms was begun.
- The completion of the outdoor garden located behind the 256 building on Clinton Ave.

  Modeled on a 16th century Florentine courtyard, it contains plantings and a two-tiered, stone, recirculating fountain.
- The purchase of a 100' x 22' strip of property on Vanderbilt Ave. located between the campus's two existing parking facilities.

  At Patchogue:
- The purchase of a medical arts building located on the north side of Roe Blvd. near Waverly Ave.
- The finalization of plans to construct a threestory building, adjacent to the Callahan Library, that will house classrooms, faculty offices and computer labs, at an estimated cost of $6-8 million. Projected completion date is January 2001. Combined Campuses:
- A 10% increase in the number of full-time faculty.
- Technology advances, including the construction of a high-speed fiber optic intra-campus network connecting all offices, instructional facilities, computer labs and libraries.
- Plans to develop an alliance with Polytechnic University allowing SJC students to earn an undergraduate degree in computer science and then move on to Polytechnic for a Master's Degree in computer science.
- The preparation in adjusting curriculum to meet new requirements for teacher education programs which are being promulgated by New York State.
- The continued cultivation of respect for diversity and multiculturalism. Programs included Special Presidential Grants to provide modest funds to campus groups such as the Department of Nursing for a symposium on "Celebrating Diversity in Nursing"; the Child Study Department to purchase videos for use by student teachers; the Brooklyn campus to present special programs for Diversity Week; and the Speech Dept. in Patchogue to develop "Unity in Diversity," an outreach program. Working with the NAACP, the Patchogue campus created special full tuition grants for up to two students from each of five school districts near the campus, that have a low percentage of students who go on to four-year colleges.

The first Alumni Christmas Ball held at the America's Society in New York City raised over $80,000 for SJC.

Joseph Purcell, Senior Vice President, Division Executive at Chase Bank (r) displays the Scroll of Honor presented to him as honoree of St. Joseph's 9th Annual Golf Tournament. With him is Joseph Caltagirone, Jr., Vice President at Chase, who chaired the event, which raised over $125,000 for financial aid and scholarship programs.

Support also included:

- The largest single donation ever received by the college made by trustee John A. Danzi.
- The "Hilly Challenge", where alumni and friends were challenged to double-match a $100,000 charitable unitrust established by Maureen and Joseph Hilly was met, and surpassed, with $275,000 raised before the December 31, 1998 deadline.
- The Brooklyn Benevolent Society awarded $10,000 in support for tuition assistance to needy students at the Brooklyn campus.
- A member of the College's Board of Trustees, who wishes to remain anonymous, established a Charitable Remainder Trust naming St. Joseph's as a beneficiary. The current value of SJC's interest is more than $100,000.
- A faculty member, who wishes to remain anonymous, gave an unrestricted year-end gift of $8,000 and a former faculty member anonymously donated $50,000.
- The Roslyn Savings Foundation renewed its support of Patchogue's Council for the Arts programs with a $10,000 donation.
- Patchogue's "Spotlight on Children" program received a $5,000 grant from The Bell Atlantic Foundation.
- Fleet Bank awarded $16,000 to the Brooklyn Council for the Arts and $7,000 to Patchogue's Council. An additional $3,000 was awarded to fund activities sponsored by "Mixed Nuts", a student club at Patchogue promoting an appreciation of diversity.
- The Ira W. DeCamp Foundation, created under the Will of Elizabeth DeCamp McInerny, awarded a grant of $50,000 payable over a two-year period for the renovation of science laboratories in Brooklyn.
- As a tribute to Doris Oshinski Powers '53 and Catherine Versey O'Neill '64, the co-honorees of the First Alumni Christmas Ball, SJC received a $10,000 grant from the Herman and Henrietta Denzler Charitable Trust for scholarships.

Children enjoy a story-telling session at the Family Carnival that was part of Homecoming '98 Weekend festivities at the Patchogue campus.

People, News & Events ~

A busy and industrious faculty, student body and administration keeps the activity level high at both campuses...and beyond.

S. Miriam Honora Corr (r) chairperson of the Child Study Dept. at the Annual Cooperating Teachers and Cooperating Administrations Reception held to thank those who welcome SJC students into their schools for training. With S. Miriam are student-teacher Elizabeth Lotz (l) and faculty member Anne Egan.

SJC trustee John Danzi receives a memento from Student Government Treasurer Erin Towner on the occasion of the official naming of the athletic facility in Patchogue as The John A. Danzi Athletic Center.

Pictured at his last faculty meeting is Dr. Robert Radus, who retired after 35 years of teaching. Dr. Radus taught French and theatre courses, and also served as chair of the French Department. From 1965-1994, he was the director of Chapel Players, the College's Drama Club.

Widely-praised Irish author Tom Phelan reads from his novel Iscariot at the Patchogue campus

Other People, News and Events:

- The Division of General Studies is now The School of Adult and Professional Education to more accurately reflect its status as a fully-accredited, degree-granting program. The College of Arts & Sciences is now The School of Arts & Sciences.
  - Staff changes and expansion as follows: Joseph Spadaro filled the newly-created position of Chief Information Officer, overseeing college-wide technology needs;

Eileen Mullen and Carolyn Gallogly were promoted to Associate Deans of the School of Adult and Professional Education at Brooklyn and Patchogue, respectively;

The Aquinas Society ~

The Aquinas Society is a special group of individuals who have included St. Joseph's College as a beneficiary through planned giving vehicles. Established in 1995, the Aquinas Society recognizes those who have made a long-term investment in the future of St. Joseph's College. Membership is acknowledged with a beautiful certificate, a listing in the President's Report, and at an annual reception or dinner.

To become a member of the Aquinas Society, notify the College in writing that you have included it in your estate plans through one of these vehicles: your will, a trust or annuity, IRA, or as the beneficiary of a life insurance policy.

The President's Message

Dear Friends.

As I look back over the past year and review our plans for the future, I think gratefully of all those who have gone before us—those who founded St. Joseph's some 85 years ago and the many fine administrators, trustees, faculty and staff members who paved the way for us to succeed. Their original vision—fundamentally untarnished and undiminished—continues to guide our way as we face the challenges and the possibilities of a new millennium.

We are guided, too, by our College motto, which is the theme of this report and one of the touchstones by which we make decisions, by which we judge our progress, by which we act. Like our mission statement, like the qualities and attributes we try to instill in our graduates, Esse non videri ("To be, not to seem") is a profound, multi-dimensional and dynamic philosophy. It asks much of us, but its rewards are many.

Achieving a sense of integrity—the foundation of Esse non videri—can be a lifelong pursuit for an individual. The task is even greater for a community of many diverse and separate parts such as St. Joseph's College. Our unity, our authenticity, as an institution of higher learning stems from our common belief in the basic values and traditions upon which the College was founded. Those beliefs can best be summarized in our motto, which daily calls us to be what our mission, goals and literature say we are.

I am pleased to present you with this President's Report, which chronicles the 1999-2000 academic year. I think you will agree that St. Joseph's continues to make strides in virtually all areas of operation—welcoming a record number of students, introducing a new master's program in management, breaking ground on a business and technology center in Patchogue, unveiling the completely-renovated science labs in Brooklyn, celebrating our ranking among the top 25 colleges in the North in a special issue of U.S. News and World Report. Details of these and other exciting developments appear in the pages that follow.

While we rejoice in this time of growth and change, we are keenly aware of the legacy that has been left to us, the foundation upon which we have built—so beautifully illustrated on the front cover of this report. Esse non videri reminds us of not only where we came from and of what we are now, but also hints of what we still can become. With your continued support, I know we can proceed confidently in the direction of our dreams.

Sincerely,

Pisrie Elizabeth A. Hill, caj

Sister Elizabeth A. Hill, C.S.J. President

Circle K was among the dozens of student organizations represented at Patchogue's annual "Club Fair." Circle K works closely with the Patchogue Kiwanis Club, sponsoring fund raising events throughout the year to benefit its primary charity, Iodine Deficiency Disorder.

The women's softball team in Patchogue made its first historical trip to the NCAA Tournament in May. The team also swept four major Skyline Conference Awards, including Coach of the Year for Head Coach Gary Smith (far left).

Brooklyn students held a Bowl-a-Thon to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association, raising over $5,000. From left: students Roderick Yun, Vanessa Barrios, Vicky Barrios and Wilda Rosario, MDA district director.

Scholar athlete Roseanne Wahl, captain of the Bears women's basketball team, garnered SIC awards for basketball and volleyball in addition to a Women's Intercollegiate Athletic Association Award. Roseanne graduated with honors in May with a B.A. in Child Study. She is shown with women's basketball Coach Rich Borawski.

The School of Adult & Professional Education in Brooklyn announced the formation of its first Student Chapter of the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM). Shown at the official chartering ceremony are (1 to r): VP Cory Kondstalid, Pres. Elaine Tyson, faculty advisor Rupert Campbell and Secretary Harold Brown.

"When one's commitment to a cause is grounded in his or her ideals, rather than the desire to 'look good' on a resume, then Esse non videri becomes more than a college motto—it becomes a way of life."

omewhere between "to seem" and "to be" is the journey of becoming, the process of discovering who we really are and being true to what that ultimately means. Becoming the genuine article, the real thing. Not pretending, not doing something for the look of it, not just talking about doing it. But, to paraphrase the popular Nike slogan: Just be it. A formidable task, but one well worth the effort. For in finding the best in ourselves, we naturally bring a sense of Esse non videri to the world.

Our students are unique individuals, men and women of varying ages and backgrounds who reflect the College motto in as many ways as it can be understood: reaching out to help others; achieving academic honors; excelling in athletics; participating in study abroad programs; earning an undergraduate or graduate degree, despite the demands of work and home.

During the preceding year, there were many examples of this. The Child Study Club in Patchogue, for instance, brightened the holidays for children from the H.E.L.P. homeless housing facility, raising over $7,500 for a Christmas party and gifts through its "Helping Hands" fund-raising project. Also in Patchogue, over 120 students and faculty members turned out for "Make a Difference Day" last fall, painting, landscaping and performing other chores at Hope House Ministries. Students at the Brooklyn Campus were equally generous, in one instance raising over $5,000 for the Muscular Dystrophy Association via a "Bowl-a-Thon."

The path of becoming also leads to the magnificent discovery of our distinctive abilities and talents. We congratulate our many students who garnered special honors this year. Some highlights include:

- Brooklyn science majors Fritza Jean-Louis, Vonzell Williams, Raymond Dormevil, Tiffany Jules, Marcus Melendez, Obosa Osawe, Yen Phuong, Kevin Vilsaint and Teneika Wronge, accepted into prestigious summer research programs;
- The 22 SJC students named to the 2000 edition of Who's Who in American Universities & Colleges;
- Freshmen Severin Clemens and Corinne Harper, recipients of the Sister George Aquin O'Connor Scholarship and Board of Trustees Scholarship, respectively;
- Those inducted into SJC's recently-established Premedical Chapter of the American Medical Student Association (AMSA);
- Future special education teachers Carol Lorenzini and Denise Perro, awarded Pilot International Foundation scholarships;
- Patrick Hill, who received the Muscular Dystrophy Association's 2000 Personal Achievement Award;
- Adult & Professional students Diane Sinram, Lisa Acampora and Jo Ann Ruderman, recipients of the Richard Barry Memorial Scholarship.

Commencement 2000 in Patchogue was a family affair for Joanne Lesiewicz (center) and her daughters, fellow grads Kristen and Heather.

Seven Patchogue students traveled and studied in Spain over the summer, accompanied by Assistant Prof. of Spanish Karen Brunschwig. The group attended classes at the Univ. of Salamanca and immersed themselves in the Spanish culture, earning from four to eight academic credits.

The Class of 2004 listens to motivational speaker Marlon Smith during freshman orientation in Patchogue. SJC welcomed a total of 314 freshmen to its two campuses in September, along with 431 new transfer students, bringing the total college-wide enrollment to 4,195 at the start of the 1999-2000 academic year.

SJC mourned the loss of Dr. Alan Babich (shown with 1999 graduates Noelle Kuchler and Sean O'Connor), who died last May. A grant for college educators has been established in memory of Dr. Babich, who taught English in Patchogue.

"Esse non videri is the expression of a profound human value which forms us and brings us together as a community dedicated to the pursuit of higher education in the liberal tradition."

-Stanley A. Nevins, Ph.D., Professor of Philosophy

t. Joseph's is blessed with a dedicated faculty, who daily help students discover the best in themselves by sharing their time and knowledge and, by their fine examples, gently guiding students to lead lives characterized by integrity and authenticity.

We are proud of our faculty who have excelled both in and out of the classroom—publishing books and articles, attending conferences, presenting papers and lectures, participating in research and earning doctoral degrees. Among the recently-published are:

- Dorothy Kelly (Speech Comm.), author of Screening for Central Auditory Processing Difficulties at the Kindergarten and Second Grade Levels and Developing A Sense of Self: Tenets and Tactics for Adolescent Girls;
- George Guiliani (Psych.), who signed a contract with Research Press to write 30 Days to Promoting Self-Confidence in the Classroom;
- Julie Walsh (Political Sci.), contributor to The Encyclopedia of American Third Parties and The Encyclopedia of American Interest Groups;
- Renee White-Clark (Child Study), who coauthored an article for the Community Education Journal;
- Margaret Jennings (English), whose work appeared in Downside Review;
- David Seppala-Holtzman (Math), who wrote an article for Math Horizons;
- Monica Brennan (History), who contributed to The Revealer and The Irish Literary Supplement.

Robin McConnell, president of the L.I. Chapter of the Society for Human Resource Management, presents Charles Dyon (Preceptor in Business in the School of Adult & Professional Education) with two awards recognizing his contributions to the human resources field and his promotion of human resources professionalism as an SJC faculty member.

Joseph Glancey, Jr. (History), center, celebrated a time-honored SJC tradition with students at last spring's Ring Ceremony in Brooklyn. He is shown with juniors Christina Miani and Anthony Istrico.

Many faculty members participated in conferences in 1999-2000, including:

- Jill Levin (Child Study), 2000 Suffolk Assoc. for the Education of Young Children conference;
- · Eileen Jahn (Child Study), The Society of Organizational and Industrial Psychologists conference;
- Michael Hanophy (Bio.), STANYS Nassau Section's Winter Workshops and Science Teachers' Dinner;
- Richard Torz (Economics), Eastern Economic Assoc. conference:
- Paul Ginnetty (Psych.), Univ. of Notre Dame 20th Century American Catholicism conference;
- Marilyn Kalyvas (Child Study), Advocacy for Gifted and Talented Education in NYS conference.

We also salute Maria Montoya (Spanish), who completed doctoral studies at the Program in Hispanic & Luso-Brazilian Literatures at the Graduate Center at CUNY.

In addition, Seung Lee (Art) exhibited work at the College Art Assoc. Conference and the NESE Alpan, Space World and OIA Galleries, Catherine O'Callahan (Child Study) received the NYS Reading Assoc. Reading Educator Award; Kenneth Bauzon (Political Sci.) participated in the Fulbright-Hays Seminars Aboard Program in Egypt and Israel; and William Bengston (Sociology) was involved in groundbreaking research on anomalous healing in the lab of Jacques Benveniste, M.D., in Paris, France.

Dr. Seth Armus, Assistant Professor of History, presented a paper that is to become a book chapter in National Stereotypes in Perspective (Rodopi Press, Amsterdam, Holland).

New graduate Elizabeth Creane receives her hood from Dr. Elisabeth Anslow (Psychology) during commencement exercises held last May in Brooklyn.

An article written by Sheila Candelario (Modern Languages) appeared in Dialogo, a Univ. of Puerto Rico publication. Prof. Candelario also lectured on 20th century Salvadoran literature at the National Univ. of El Salvador.

Dr. Raymond D'Angelo (Chair, Dept. of Social Sciences) has written and edited a new book, The American Civil Rights Movement: Readings and Interpretations, published by McGraw Hill/Dushkin.

William Thieben (Secondary Education) was honored as "Educator of the Sixties" by the alumni of Bay Shore H.S., where he taught history and served as assistant principal before joining the SJC faculty.

Students Taking An Active Role In Society (S.T.A.R.S.) President Erin Towner presents the College's Esse Non Videri Award to this year's recipient, Thomas Lyon, L.I. representative for Heifer Project International. Mr. Lvon has traveled to Honduras and throughout the U.S. to gain support for the Project, which donates food and income-producing animals to needy families.

Nobel Peace Prize nominee Sister Helen Prejean, C.S.J., author of the best-selling novel, Dead Man Walking, and 1994 recipient of the Esse Non Videri Award, greets some readers after her talk in Patchogue.

Dr. Antonio Armas (r), Prof. of History and Philosophy at the Univ. of Havana and Aux. Prof. at the Medical School of Cienfuegos, delivered a lecture on "Cuba Today" in Brooklyn. He is shown with SJC Assoc. Prof. of Political Science Kenneth Bauzon.

t St. Joseph's, inspiration comes in many different packages. The professor whose enthusiasm for his discipline overflows into after-class discussions. A stirring performance by a string quartet. A guest speaker leading a discussion on world hunger. A lunchtime lecture about the life and works of philosopher Martin Buber. A commencement address motivating graduates to work for social change. A charity basketball game.

What we do as a community of educators, staff, students and by extension the special guests who visit our campuses to enlighten and inform us-the curricula we offer, the social and educational events we sponsor, how we celebrate—to a large degree reflects who we are, what we stand for as an institution of higher learning in the liberal arts tradition. This is no small challenge, but one that we embrace wholeheartedly.

St. Joseph's is a busy place, a place of energy, curiosity and open-mindedness. One need only check the weekly "Jotter" in Patchogue or "Happenings" in Brooklyn to discover a host of diverse activities ranging from liberal arts colloquiums, comedy nights and Bears basketball games to artists receptions, dance presentations and continuing education workshops on topics like "writing a great term paper."

A highlight of the year is the presentation of the Esse Non Videri Award to an individual who, through his or her character and actions, embodies the essence of "To be, not to seem." Two of those recipients are pictured here. They are part of a growing group of outstanding men and women who, like many members of the SJC family, live lives worthy of the College motto.

The Thalia String Quartet opened the 1999-2000 Council for the Arts Series in Brooklyn. Funding for this year's programs came from The Roslyn Savings Foundation (Patchogue) and Fleet Bank (Brooklyn and Patchogue).

"Early in the College's history, the administration and faculty granted the students a high degree of control over extra-curricular affairs.

This environment, which fosters self-direction and responsibility, is in keeping with our motto,

Esse non videri."

—Sherrie Van Arnam Director of Student Services Brooklyn Campus

St. Joe's was well represented at the annual St. Patrick's Day Parade in New York City, despite a late winter snowstorm.

Barbara Brandon, the first African-American woman to become a nationallysyndicated cartoonist, was one of the featured guests during SJC's celebration of Black History Month.

Forty-five companies participated in this year's Career Fair in Patchogue, providing opportunities for students and alumni to meet prospective employers. Among the firms represented were Astoria Federal Savings, the IRS, the U.S. Customs Service, Computer Associates, Symbol Technologies and Periphonics.

Members of the "Jelly Bean Theatre" troupe presented a program on tolerance in Patchogue. The event was sponsored by the Multi-Cultural Club, moderated by business faculty member, Rupert Campbell (third from right), Coordinator of Diversity Initiatives.

Fidelity

ithout the continued support of our loyal alumni and many friends in the civic and corporate communities, St. Joseph's would be unable to carry out its mission to educate and help students develop as whole persons. The achievements of the more than 16,500 SJC alumni around the world are the fruit of our efforts and living proof of our faithfulness to the mission and motto that unite us.

Our alumni were active throughout the past year, gathering for Homecoming celebrations, career networking evenings, home receptions and other activities and supporting their alma mater via fundraising events and individual contributions. Among these is a $50,000 donation from the Class of 1950 for the Alumni Fund, representing the largest one-time gift from an anniversary class.

Other friends of the College were equally generous in their support of special events such as the annual Dinner Dance, Golf Tournament and Trustees Luncheon, as well as contributions of grants, gifts and scholarships. Recently, the College received grants in the amount of $100,000 each from Pfizer, Inc. and the Independence Community Foundation toward the renovation of the Brooklyn science labs. That project also received funding from the Ira W. DeCamp Foundation ($50,000), the Louis Calder Foundation ($100,000) and Brooklyn science alumni (over $25,000).

Other gifts and/or pledges received this past year include:

- UPS Foundation $50,000 grant for the Academic Center for Enhancement Services;
- Chase Manhattan Bank $75,000 pledged for technology projects in Patchogue and $5,000 for a literacy program at the Dillon Child Study Center;
- Roslyn Savings Foundation $30,000 grant for the annual Golf Tournament and Dinner Dance and financial aid programs;
- Herman and Henrietta Denzler Trust $10,000 for endowed scholarship fund;
- Ridgewood Savings Bank $10,000 grant for library materials for Adult & Professional students in Brooklyn;
- Brooklyn Benevolent Society $10,000 grant for scholarships for needy Brooklyn students;
- KeySpan Foundation $12,500 for technological improvements in Patchogue;
- King Kullen Grocery Inc. $5,000 payment of its $50,000 commitment to the endowed scholarship fund;
- Fleet Bank $16,400 for arts programs in Brooklyn; $7,000 for arts programs in Patchogue; $3,000 for the Multi-Cultural Club in Patchogue;
- Bell Atlantic Foundation Renewed its support for the "Spotlight on Children" program in Patchogue with a $10,000 grant.

John J. Leahy (I), Managing Director of The Citibank Private Bank, and Craig G. Matthews, Pres. and Chief Operating Officer of KeySpan Energy, were co-honorees at SJC's 17th Annual Dinner Dance on October 15. Jack and Craig each received the College's Distinguished Citizen Award at the gala event, which raised over $222,000 for scholarship, financial aid and building programs.

S. Elizabeth displays a "Homecoming '99" T-shirt in Patchogue. She is joined by (l to r) Suffolk Alumni Assoc. Secretary Lisa Martinelli '94; Suffolk Alumni Past Pres. Dr. Frank Favazza '87; Suffolk Alumni Pres. Matthew Barbis '94; Patchogue Chamber of Commerce VP Vincent Grucci; Brookhaven Town INTERFACE Coordinator Maria Polak; then-Patchogue Village Mayor Stephen Keegan; and Brookhaven Town Supervisor Felix Grucci.

S. Elizabeth accepts a check for $12,500 from David Okorn, Grant Adminstrator for the KeySpan Foundation, representing the Foundation's support for classroom technology in Patchogue.

"For me, Esse non videri means to really live every moment and not let life pass you by. You just can't be an outsider looking in—you have to be in it and experience it and really live whatever it is, every single day."

—Dr. Mary Ellen Dubiel Freeley '67 SJC Alumni Association Executive Board

S. Elizabeth presents Daniel Hoffman, Pres. and COO of Uni-Data & Communications, Inc., with a New York Times framed NY Yankees photo during SJC's 10th Annual Golf Tournament. The event honored Mr. Hoffman and raised over $120,000 for College scholarship and financial aid programs.

Student counselors from the "Spotlight on Children" program in Patchogue learn to sign a song. A dramatic arts program for children, "Spotlight" is made possible through the generosity of the Bell Atlantic Foundation, which this year renewed its support with a $10,000 grant.

The Young Alumni Reception held at the Ye Waverly Inn in Manhattan last December brought together graduates of the 1990s for an evening of fine dining, conversation and networking. Among those present were Diana Grgas '97, Jill Pasquale '97, Brendan Mohan '99, Jose Bonilla '96 and Denise Tesoriero '99.

Dr. Marie Ponsot '40,
Professor of English Emerita at Queens College, stands to receive a Doctor of Humane Letters honorary degree at SJC's Arts & Sciences
commencement in Brooklyn.
Dr. Ponsot recently received a National Book Critics Circle Award for her celebrated book of poems,
The Bird Catcher.

Vision

Dr. Carol Hayes (right), Biology Dept. Chair, leads a tour of the new biology labs in Brooklyn for visitors (l to r) MacDara Lynch, Site Leader for Pfizer Global Manufacturing; S. Mary Corde Tymann, SJC Prof. Emeritus of Physics; John R. Day, Dir. of Manufacturing Support for Pfizer Global Manufacturing; and Marilyn Gelber, Exec. Dir. of the Independence Community Foundation.

life guided by the spirit of Esse non videri is not one that remains static or resistant to growth and change. The College motto, then, is not about merely resting on one's laurels, but instead contains the dimension of always looking ahead to what can still be attained, to what one still can become.

Our challenge at St. Joseph's has always been to be faithful to the original vision of those who founded our College 85 years ago—maintaining our uniqueness as an institution—while at the same time remaining flexible enough to adapt and expand our horizons when necessary.

Over the past year, SJC moved forward in many areas in response to the ever-changing needs of our diverse student population. This summer, we completed the project to renovate and modernize the Brooklyn science labs, thanks to the support of many generous donors. Built more than a half-century ago, the original labs had become outdated and inefficient for modern experimentation methods.

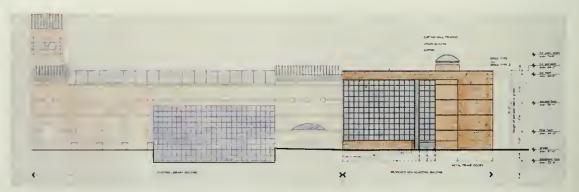

In Patchogue, we broke ground on the Business and Information Technology Center that we hope to open sometime next year. Also over the summer, the College refurbished a "Never having studied Latin in high school, Esse non videri was a bit of a mystery to me at first. But over the years I have come to understand and appreciate the meaning of these words by observing the selfless contributions that the Sisters of St Joseph have made to the College."

The SJC Board of Trustees welcomed two new members, Thomas F Cruso (top), President of Cruso Associates, Inc., and John Buran, Branch Coordinator, Carner Federal Savings Bank.

Construction began on the Business and Information Technology Center in Patchogue, which will house new classrooms and computer labs, videoconferencing rooms, math/computer science and business faculty offices and a state-of-the-art model classroom.

building in Patchogue that it had acquired several years ago, readying it as the new home of the Office of Institutional Advancement. Formerly known as the Office of Development, College Relations and Alumni, the department was renamed last spring, when Director of Alumni Relations Margaret Minson was appointed VP for Institutional Advancement, Margaret, a 1970 graduate of SJC, succeeded longtime VP Rosalie Tutino, who retired. Several new staff members joined the office, including Director of Public Relations Michael Quane, and Director of Alumni Relations Mary Jo Burke Chiara '69.

In the area of program development, we welcomed our first classes of students in our new Master of Science in Management program -Brooklyn's first and Patchogue's second graduate offering. Designed for working adults in leadership positions in the public service, private and non-profit sectors, the program is administered through the School of Adult & Professional Education. Also last fall, we launched our recently-forged alliance with Polytechnic University, which allows students to earn an undergraduate degree from SJC and a graduate degree in computer science from Polytechnic in a combined BA/BS + MS program.

At the same time, we were pleased to learn that New York State had re-registered our education programs at both the elementary and secondary levels, with no suggested changes. We received further affirmation of the merits of our work with the news that SIC had ranked among the top 25 colleges in the North in a special issue of the U.S. News & World Report additional evidence of our faithfulness to that original vision that continues to guide us as we make our way into a new millennium.

Out of 429 regional liberal arts colleges, St. Joseph's ranked as one of the top 25 in the North in the U.S. News & World Report, Fall 1999 issue. Criteria included class size, studentto-faculty ratio, SAT/ACT and academic scores, retention and graduation rates and alumni giving percentages.

Dr. Thomas Travis introduces the inaugural guest speakers of the M.S. in Management seminar series in Brooklyn: Bernadette Murphy (1), Managing Dir. at Kimelman & Baird and a regular panelist on the TV show, Wall Street Week, and Mary Ann Bartels, VP and Sr. International Quantitative Strategist at Merrill Lynch.

The Office of Institutional Advancement prepared its new home, the site of a former medical arts building on Roc Blvd., located just west of the main Patchogue Campus.

The Aquinas Society

The Aquinas Society is a special group of individuals who have included St. Joseph's College as a beneficiary through planned giving vehicles. Established in 1995, the Aquinas Society recognizes those who have made a long-term investment in the future of St. Joseph's College. Membership is acknowledged with a beautiful certificate, a listing in the President's Report, and at a special reception or dinner.

To become a member of the Aquinas Society, notify the College in writing that you have included it in your estate plans through one of these vehicles: your will, a trust or annuity, IRA, or as the beneficiary of a life insurance policy.

St. Joseph's College 2000–2001 President's Report

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Friends,

In my inaugural address four years ago, I expressed my belief that St. Joseph's College has the capacity to become a truly great institution of learning – great, not necessarily in size, but in the excellence of our faculty, the quality of our programs, and the contributions our graduates make to the world at large. At that time, I invited each member of the College community to join me in working together to assure that this potential is realized.

Writing to you today, at the conclusion of yet another busy and fruitful academic year, I am happy to report that we are indeed well along the way to achieving that goal.

I think with pride of the people, events and projects that made 2000-2001 so memorable, and I am humbled by the many ways in which our College community has responded – and continues to respond – to my earlier challenge. During the past year alone, total enrollment increased by almost seven percent, we welcomed 29 new full-time instructors to our distinguished faculty, and we graduated a record number of students, including the first class of graduates of our new M.S. in Management program.

In the area of technology, we developed additional distance learning, online courses and video-conferencing opportunities. We introduced our expanded website, where visitors can take a "virtual tour" of our campuses and access in-depth information about St. Joseph's. Last spring, we offered online registration for our seniors, with the plan of making that option available to all students in the very near future. Our staff also has been working diligently on a new online advisement packet, as well as remote access to our libraries.

The past year was also a time of physical expansion. In Patchogue, we watched the construction of our new Business and Information Technology Center, and look forward to its opening next summer.

But perhaps the most significant of these developments was the College's purchase of St. Angela Hall Academy in Brooklyn. The original home of St. Joseph's, a building within the Academy complex quite literally is where we began as an institution of higher learning in 1916. In acquiring this property, to be integrated into our existing Brooklyn Campus, in a sense we have reclaimed an important part of our history, the foundation upon which we have built these past 85 years. And so in a concrete way, St. Angela Hall represents the traditions, values and mission that continue to guide us as we meet the challenges of an evolving world and the changing needs of our students.

I hope you will enjoy this report, which chronicles the highlights of the year and celebrates the achievements and contributions of our students, faculty, staff, alumni, friends and supporters. At our urban Brooklyn Campus, at our suburban Patchogue Campus, together we make up the one dynamic community of St. Joseph's College.

Pisree Elizabeth A. Hill, caj

Sister Elizabeth A. Hill, C.S.J. President

The Lady Bears basketball team in Brooklyn had quite a year, winning 19 games - the most in the program's history - and making it to the semifinals of the National Small College Athletic Association championship tournament.

College community. Everything we do revolves around them and their varying needs. They are freshmen, straight out of high school. They are working adults, earning a college degree on the weekends. They live in the city; they live in the suburbs. They are preparing to become teachers, health care professionals, accountants, social workers, to name just a few. They have dreams, places to go. We help them get there.

Some Highlights...

- Patchogue's Recreation Club sponsored a blood drive to support 11-year-old Gary Elwell. Gary was born with a damaged portal vein, which connects the spleen to the liver.
- Roseanne Forde, a Brooklyn senior, was awarded a Roslyn Savings Foundation Scholarship.
- Twenty-two students were named to the prestigious Who's Who in American Colleges & Universities.
- A new chapter of Psi Chi, the National Honor Society in Psychology, was established in Brooklyn.
- The Child Study Club in Patchogue shared holiday cheer with children from the HELP Housing Facility, hosting a Christmas party and providing gifts with funds raised by club members.
- Student members of the Brooklyn chapter of SHRM visited with youngsters from Hour Children, an organization that helps the children of formerly- and currently-incarcerated mothers.
- Biology major Michael Simonetti was accepted into the Downstate Medical Center in Brooklyn. Chemistry majors Raymond Dormevil, Tiffany Jules and Obosa Osawe participated in the Medical Academic Advancement Program at the Univ. of Virginia. Zarmeen Khan, another chemistry major, is entering the six-year Doctor of Pharmacy degree program at St. John's Univ., while Yen Phuong had research fellowships following her sophomore and junior years at the Univ. of Minnesota and Univ. of Connecticut, respectively. Yen is now doing research at Pfizer, Inc.
- Patchogue's equestrian team enjoyed a phenomenal season, winning seven of nine horse shows and competing at nationals.
- In other athletic news, Patchogue's men's baseball coach Randy Caden, in his first year at the helm in Patchogue, guided the team to a 15-19 overall mark, which included a Skyline Championship and a post season berth in the Knickerbocker Conference. Brooklyn's athletic program was accepted into the National Small College Athletic Association.

Patchogue freshman Melissa Matusik was among the many new students who were awarded scholarships. Melissa received the Blanche A. Knauth Scholarship, which is given to an outstanding female student. Patchogue's freshman class was the largest and most diverse to date.

An energetic group of students performed community service work in Patchogue Village in honor of "Make A Difference Day." They screened sand for debris, picked up litter and fertilized and planted at several locations within the Village.

Members of the Brooklyn Chapter of the Society of Human Resource Management (SHRM) served as water marshals at the New York Marathon in November.

The Gaelic Society from the Brooklyn Campus was part of a contingent of SJC students, staff, faculty and alumni that turned out for the "wearing of the green" at the annual St. Patrick's Day Parade in New York City.

faculty

Dr. Marc Ricciardi, Asst. Prof. of English, takes a turn at the podium during the marathon reading of Milton's Paradise Lost that he organized at the Patchogue Campus last February.

In Brooklyn, in Patchogue, both within and outside the classroom, our dedicated faculty are the ones who inspire, enlighten, guide. Theirs is no easy task, entrusted as they are with the mission that unites us: "to prepare each student for a life characterized by integrity, intellectual and spiritual values, social responsibility and service." It's a powerful mandate, one they take very seriously.

Some Highlights...

- Robert Nobile, Asst. Prof. of Business/Organizational Management, authored four employee and human resources guides.
- Timothy McHeffey, Senior Lecturer in Business, published Maintaining the Store: Keeping Up Appearances.
- Dorothy Kelly, Assoc. Prof. of Speech Communication, published Developing A Sense of Self: Tenets and Tactics for Adolescent Girls and Screening for Central Auditory Processing Difficulties at the Kindergarten and Second Grade Levels.
- Dr. William Bengston, Prof. of Sociology, published a paper in The Journal of Scientific Exploration.

Assoc. Prof. of Political Science Dr. Kenneth Bauzon, right, invited Japanese reporter Takushi Ohno to speak to his social sciences class in Brooklyn on the topic, "Japanese Views on the American Presidential Election."

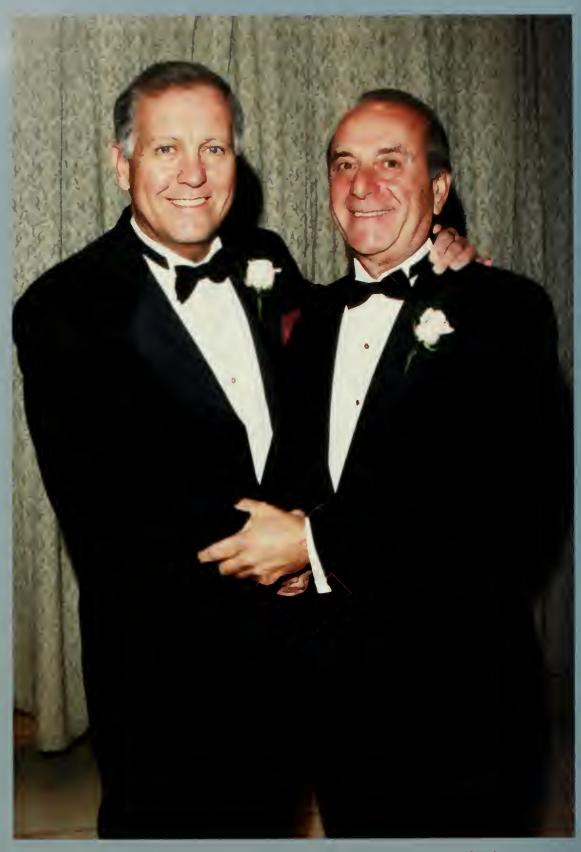

Haywood Gill, Jr., Preceptor in Community Health and Human Services in the School of Adult & Prof. Education, submitted a grant application on behalf of his church that resulted in $2.5 million in medical supplies and equipment being shipped to Monrovia, Liberia. A doctoral student, Mr. Gill has taught in Brooklyn for 23 years.

Patchogue Academic Dean S. Loretta McGrann (right) and student Jessica Drevis, along with other volunteers, helped build a home for a family in rural Appalachia. The SJC erew also included Asst. Prof. of Religious Studies S. Suzanne Franck and students Tara Lochr and Chris Peraz.

The Institute for the Study of Religion in Community Life was established by faculty in Patchogue. Shown at a conference on "Living a Spiritual Life in the Workplace," are, from left: Asst. Prof. of Sociology John Hazzard; SJC President S. Elizabeth Hill; speaker Fr. James Martin, S.J.; and Institute Director and Assoc. Prof. of Psychology Dr. Paul Ginnetty:

here would we be without the generosity and support of our loyal alumni and our many friends in the corporate and civic communities?

Now over 21,000 strong, our graduates are constant reminders of how important the work of St. Joseph's is. Through their participation in special events such as the Christmas Ball and the Dinner Dance, through their gifts and volunteer hours, our graduates and friends are vital members of the extended SJC community.

Some Highlights...

- The Patchogue athletic field was renamed the Gregg Alfano Field in memory of alumnus Gregg Alfano '93.
- SJC hosted a reception for Nassau County public officials and alumni. In attendance were County Legislator Norma Gonsalves '56, State Assemblywoman Maureen O'Connell '84 and Legislators Peter Schmitt and Edward Mangano.
- The Town of Brookhaven Industrial Development Agency endowed a scholarship to be used annually for an SJC student in need from Brookhaven.
- The College received a $5,000 grant from Con Edison for an environmental study of Jamaica Bay.
- The Alumni Christmas Ball honored graduates Dr. Geraldine Donnelly Chapey and SJC VP for Academic Affairs S. Mary Florence Burns, and raised almost $90,000 for the endowed scholarship fund.
- A $4,500 grant from Allstate Insurance funded a Fatal Vision simulator car demonstration during Alcohol and Drug Awareness Week in Patchogue.
- Barnes & Noble College Bookstores presented an $8,000 donation, part of a $20,000 pledge for scholarships.
- Patchogue business major Matthew Ruppert was named this year's "King Kullen Scholar."
- The Brookhaven Business and Professional Women's Club awarded a $500 scholarship to student Rosanne Colatutto.
- A $50,000 gift was received from the Pfizer Foundation, the final installment of a $100,000 pledge for the renovation of Brooklyn's science labs.
- Student Barbara Derrenbacher received the Patricia A. Dyon Hospice Endowed Scholarship.
- The Independence Community Foundation made a final payment of $50,000 on its $100,000 pledge to renovate the Brooklyn science labs.
- The Herman and Henrietta Denzler Trust donated $20,000 to the Endowed Scholarship Fund.

SJC's 11th Annual Golf Tournament honored JP Morgan Chase Exec. VP and SJC Trustee Frank Lourenso and raised over $110,000 for scholarship and financial aid programs. From left: Sports Plus President Bill Reitzig; former NY Mets great Tom Seaver; Mr. Lourenso; and General Chair Joe Caltagirone, Jr., of JP Morgan Chase.

The Board of Trustees hosted a dinner that raised over $10,000 for College programs. From left: Dinner Co-Chair William McKenna, Jr. of Ridgewood Savings Bank; Board Chair Sheila Baird of Kimelman & Baird, LLC; Dinner Co-Chair William Tucker, Esq. of Golden, Wexler and Sarnese; student Kathleen Kaszuba; and Finance Committee Chair N. Hilton Rosen, Esq.

Congressman Felix Grucci, Jr. taught a class in Government and Politics, met with the President's Council and spoke to students, staff and faculty during his day-long visit to the Patchogue Campus.

The Marygrace Calhoun Dunn Academic Center, in Brooklyn, which houses the ACES program, was named in memory of Mrs. Dunn, a 1946 alumna. Mrs. Dunn's husband, Richard, made a pledge of $150,000 that will benefit the Center. Above, Mr. Dunn visits with (from left) students Lisa Geraci and Dana Phillipeaux, ACES Director Dr. Sydelle Brooks and student Josephine DeSalvo.

again, hosting lectures and academic conferences, presenting cultural arts programs, recognizing the achievements of its members, raising funds and celebrating at annual gatherings such as freshman investiture, honors convocation, the awarding of the Esse Non Videri Award and commencement. We are a diverse, energetic, growing community, joined by our common belief in the values and traditions upon which St. Joseph's was founded 85 years ago.

Some Highlights...

- The North Shore Symphony Orchestra kicked off the Patchogue Council for the Arts 2000-01 Performance Series. Also featured were The Canticum Novum Singers, the Long Island Brass Guild and the Eglevsky Ballet. The Brooklyn Council also offered a program that included a concert by the Imani Winds classical woodwind quintet.
- Pulitzer Prize-winning author Oscar Hijuelos delivered the annual Founders Day lecture in Brooklyn. In 1990, Mr. Hijuelos became the first Hispanic author to win the Pulitzer Prize for fiction with his novel, The Mambo Kings Play Songs of Love.
- Child Study students and faculty in Brooklyn marked the 25th anniversary of the passage of the Education for All Handicapped Children Act (PL 94-142) with an activity-filled program.
- Patchogue hosted a talk by Fr. Roy Bourgeois, who received the 1997 Pope Paul VI Teacher of Peace Award for his work in publicizing atrocities allegedly committed by certain graduates of the School of the Americas.
- Randolph Cameron, founder and president of Cameron Enterprises, a management-consulting firm, spoke at a luncheon for students in the M.S. in Management program at the Brooklyn Campus.
- Virginia Stolarski, Ed.D., and Claudia Schrader, Ed.M., of Medgar Evers College of CUNY delivered the keynote address on "The New Immigrant" during a multiculturalism colloquium in Patchogue.
- The Math/Computer Science Dept. in Patchogue sponsored its first Regional High School Computer Programming Competition with 11 schools represented.
- The Club Outreach student organization in Brooklyn held a bowl-a-thon which raised approximately $2,000 for the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

Members of the SJC Class of 2001 celebrate following the Arts & Sciences graduation in Brooklyn on June 1. A total of 750 students College-wide received their degrees last spring.

"Celebrate! Diversity Week" in Brooklyn began with a multicultural dance program. Shown are student organizers with members of Yee's Hung Ga Academy, who performed the Chinese Lion Dance.

Award-winning artist Eduardo Bates displayed paintings included in his show, "Africa," during Patchogue's Black History Month celebration.

Guest speaker Sergio Rameriz, the former vice president of the Nicaraguan Sandinista government, lectured on "Nicaragua: The Last Revolution of the Twentieth Century" at the Patchogue Campus.

Mr. Rameriz is currently a visiting professor at the Univ. of Maryland.

SJC officials are exploring several possible uses for the St. Angela Hall Academy property in Brooklyn, which St. Joseph's acquired this year. A building located at the site was the original home of what was then St. Joseph's College for Women.

n response to an increasing student enrollment and additional faculty and staff positions, both campuses underwent physical expansion last year through the acquisition of new property and/or building projects. 2000-2001 was also a period of technological and program growth. The College has come quite a long way since it began back in 1916 with a faculty of eight and a student body of 12. Rooted in that noble past, we look confidently toward the future.

Some Highlights...

- Online registration for seniors was introduced, with plans to offer this option to all students in the fall.
- For the second consecutive year, St. Joseph's was listed among the top 25 liberal arts colleges in the North in the U.S. News & World Report education issue.
- A variety of new online and distance learning courses were added. Technology and Information Services staffers, along with the Registrar's Office, also worked to develop an online advisement packet that will soon be in place.
- Our expanded website debuted, offering new graphics, more information and additional links. The site also features College news and events, as well as a "virtual tour" of the two campuses. Visit us online at www.sjcny.edu. The website was designed by Kraig DeMatteis, SJC's new web manager, in cooperation with Stamats Communications.
- In the area of program development, a third concentration Human Resources Management was developed for the College's newest graduate level program, leading to a Master of Science degree in Management. Students can also opt for concentrations in Organizational Management and Health Care Management. The program is administered through the School of Adult & Professional Education.
- SJC teamed up with Molloy College to provide unique study abroad opportunities for students at both colleges. The new initiative is called Long Island Partnership for Study Abroad (LIPSA). Asst. Prof. of Business Ralph Nofi is LIPSA's Global Studies Coordinator at St. Joseph's.
- A beautiful brick SJC sign was erected at the corner of Sunrise Hwy. and Waverly Ave., welcoming visitors to the Patchogue Campus. The corner property was acquired by the College through the help of New York Senator Caesar Trunzo, a longtime friend of SJC.
- The College introduced its new toll-free number (1-866-AT ST JOE), which connects callers to admissions counselors.

The first graduating class of the M.S. in Management program received their degrees in the spring. Shown are Brooklyn graduates with Dean Dr. Thomas Travis. A total of 38 students from both campuses completed the program.

Work continued throughout the year on the new Business and Information Technology Center in Patchogue, which will house additional classrooms and computer labs, videoconferencing rooms, faculty offices and a model classroom.

Patchogue's Institutional Advancement Office moved into its new home at 319 West Roe Blvd. Shown at the ribbon-cutting are VP for Institutional Advancement Margaret Minson; President S. Elizabeth Hill; VP and Dean of the School of Adult & Prof. Education Dr. Thomas Travis; Patchogue Academic Dean S. Loretta McGrann; and Patchogue Chamber of Commerce Director Gail Hoag.

The College created an attended parking lot for students on its Vanderbilt Avc. property, making room for 111 additional spaces at the Brooklyn Campus a $600,000 improvement.

AQUINAS SOCIETY

The Aquinas Society is a special group of individuals who have included St. Joseph's College as a beneficiary through planned giving vehicles. Established in 1995, the Aquinas Society recognizes those who have made a long-term investment in the future of St. Joseph's College. Membership is acknowledged with a beautiful certificate, a listing in the President's Report, and at a special reception or dinner.

To become a member of the Aquinas Society, notify the College in writing that you have included it in your estate plans through one of these vehicles: your will, a trust or annuity, IRA, or as the beneficiary of a life insurance policy.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Friends,

f I were to characterize the past 12 months in the College's history, I would say that, above all, 2001-2002 was a year of collaborative planning, a time for fine tuning our vision for the future, and for establishing the groundwork for projects and initiatives to be formed and shaped in the months and years ahead.

Many of the objectives that were identified and defined during this period of preparation are summarized in two key documents: a College-wide strategic plan including specific goals to strengthen and enhance the good work that we do at St. Joseph's; and a comprehensive master plan outlining significant physical improvements and additions to our Brooklyn Campus.

Chaired by Marie Losquadro, Assistant Dean in the School of Adult & Professional Education, the College Strategic Planning Committee of faculty and administrators carefully reviewed the comments and suggestions that surfaced during a SLOT (Strengths, Limitations, Opportunities and Threats) Analysis conducted at our Spring 2001 Planning Day.

The many important issues that emerged from that process were consolidated into 11 pivotal issues to be addressed and implemented over the next three to five years. Areas of primary focus – student recruitment, academic support, student services, curriculum, faculty recruitment, faculty representation in governance, reporting structure, faculty technological support, administrative technological support, institutional advancement and facilities – touch upon virtually every aspect of the College's life and mission and provide a dynamic blueprint for the future as St. Joseph's begins its 87th year as an academic institution.

Additionally, over the past year, our Board of Trustees approved an ambitious plan for the Brooklyn Campus that we hope to effectuate in three phases over the next 15 years. The primary goal of this initiative, developed by the New York architectural firm of Hardy Holzman Pfeiffer Associates, is to enhance the image and identity of the campus within the historic Clinton Hill neighborhood.

Phase One of the master plan, which was launched this summer, involved renovations and upgrades to Lorenzo Hall, home of the School of Adult & Professional Education.

Similar improvements are slated for McEntegart Hall, S. Vincent Thérèse Hall and the 256

Clinton Avenue building. Perhaps the most significant element of Phase One is the construction of a three-story student center that will connect the 245 and S. Vincent Thérèse Hall buildings on Clinton Avenue and become the "welcoming front door" or new "heart" of the Brooklyn Campus.

Phases Two and Three – the development of which is contingent on a careful analysis of prevailing economic conditions, enrollment and other critical factors – would include the construction of an expanded, modernized Dillon Child Study Center and a 12,000 sq. ft. recreational/wellness facility, as well as renovations to St. Angela Hall.

a new high of 4,633 students at the start of the Fall 2001 semester – a significant gain from even just five years ago, when total enrollment stood at 4,174 students. And as our student body has grown, so, too, has our faculty. This past fall we welcomed 15 additional faculty members for a total of 245 FTE (full time equivalent) positions, up 21 percent since the 1997-98 academic year.

Other constituencies of our College community grew as well. This past year saw the addition of two outstanding members to our Board of Trustees: Mark B. Anderson, Executive VP at Citibank, N.A., and John F. Haran, Senior VP of the Long Island gas operations for KeySpan Energy Delivery. Each brings a new dimension of expertise and creative leadership to our esteemed board, now numbering 31 members. We welcome Mark and John to the table.

PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT

The 2001-02 fiscal year was also a time of planning and productivity in the area of academic programs. I am pleased to report the approval of a new major at St. Joseph's, leading to a bachelor of science degree in Computer Information Systems. We are most grateful to the Mathematics/Computer Science faculty team for bringing this program through the many steps and stages necessary for NYSED approval and for practical implementation. This major will be available to students in both the School of Arts & Sciences and the School of Adult & Professional Education, at both campuses, beginning this fall.

In addition, our M.S. in Management program added a third concentration, in Human Resources Management. This third

A YEAR OF GROWTH

Reviewing these two documents, I admit I am sometimes a bit awed at the thought of how much remains to be done. And yet, as I look back over the past year, I am again both struck and pleased by how far we have come, even in the past 12 months. Fueled by a recordbreaking freshman class in Patchogue of 313 students, College-wide enrollment increased to option is available to new and continuing students enrolled in the two-year-old School of Adult & Professional Education program, as part of our growing outreach to the human resources community.

St. Joseph's also entered into partnerships with two local universities to provide further opportunities for SJC students. Currently, we are awaiting state approval of an articulation agreement with St. John's University which would pave the way for students who receive a bachelor's degree in Accounting from SJC to go on to earn a master's degree in Accounting from St. John's, while qualifying St. Joseph's as a 150-credit Accounting program. A second cooperative master's initiative, with Adelphi University, will lead to an M.S. in Communication Disorders with a concentration in Speech-Language Pathology. Still in the developmental stages, this program will be offered at our Patchogue Campus beginning January 2003.

BUILDING PROJECTS

Work continued throughout the year on our newest addition, a 33,380-sq.ft. Business Information and Technology Center located adjacent to the Callahan Library in Patchogue. This state-of-the-art facility contains additional classrooms and computer labs, a videoconferencing room linking our two campuses, seminar rooms and new offices for our Math, Computer and Business faculty and staff. We eagerly await its opening this September.

In Brooklyn, renovations were completed on eight modern classrooms and the Marygrace Calhoun Dunn Academic Center, located in the main building of St. Angela Hall. The College also opened a new attended student parking facility in Brooklyn, with spaces for over 100 cars.

Under the leadership of Chief Information Officer Joseph Spadaro, our Technical and Information Services staff was busy throughout the year. Thanks to their efforts, our students can now take advantage of remote access to library databases, as well as online advising and registration. In addition, online learning has become a growing option at St. Joseph's, with a total of 10 full-time online courses and six courses that blend traditional classroom learning and supplemental online class work offered last fall. Online offerings College-wide have increased an average of two to three courses per semester since SJC's first online class debuted in September 1999.

STUDENT LIFE

As usual, our students were busy and productive, earning academic honors, sponsoring events for charity, achieving accolades within and outside of the classroom. I am proud to announce that 21 SJC students were named to the 2002 edition of Who's Who in American Universities & Colleges, based on their academic achievements, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and potential for continued success.

Last February, a delegation of six Brooklyn students studied the role, organization and activities of NATO at the 17th Annual Model NATO Conference at Howard University in Washington, DC. Among other student highlights, Patchogue junior Kimberly Drielak was awarded a highly-competitive Federal Law Enforcement Training Center (FLETC) internship. Kimberly, who intends to pursue a career in computer forensics with the federal government, was one of only nine students nationwide to be selected for this opportunity.

We are similarly proud of graduating senior Kevin Vilsaint, who was accepted into the Thomas Jefferson Medical School in Philadelphia and the SUNY School of Medicine at Binghamton. In addition, Biology major Vonzell Williams was invited for interviews at Cornell University School of Medicine and SUNY Downstate in Brooklyn. We wish these new SJC graduates much luck as they pursue further studies.

FACULTY ACHIEVEMENTS

The success of our students is an outgrowth of the enthusiasm and expertise of our faculty. This past year, many members of our faculty published books and articles, while others attended conferences, presented papers and conducted workshops.

Among those receiving special recognition for outstanding work were: S. Mary Maier, Ph.D. (Chemistry), who received two awards from the American Chemical Society for her work in chemical education, and William McAllister, M.S. (Math/Computer Science), whose invention patent was bronzed and placed on permanent display at Northrup Grumman.

Dorothy Kelly, D.A. (Speech Communication) completed a new book, Claiming A Sense of Self: Life Tenets and Tactics for Thinking Women, which is under peer review by the National Association of Social Workers. In addition, Dorothy's postgraduate level online course, Understanding Auditory Perceptual Frameworks for Emergent/Early Literacy, was accepted for publication by the Northern Speech and Rehabilitation Services.

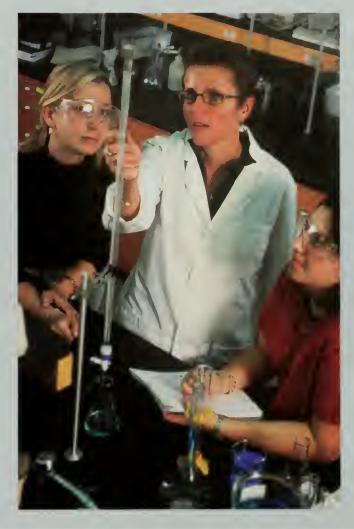

S. Jane Fritz, M.S.E.E., M.S.C.Sc. (Math/Computer Science) published an article, "Striving for Mathematical Thinking," based on a summer conference she attended in Canterbury, England, as part of an international group of computer scientists. In addition, Alice Ryan, Ph.D. (Child Study) co-authored Succeeding At Your Interview: A Practical Guide for Teachers.

Among those who presented special lectures were: Lorraine Boykin, Ed.D. (Community Health and Human Services), who spoke at the School of Medicine, University of Jordan; Mohammed Rana, Ph.D. (Biology), invited by the National Arbor Day Foundation to discuss an environmental study of Jamaica Bay; and Paul Ginnetty, Ph.D. (Psychology), who addressed the Suffolk County Executive's Task Force on Family Violence. Additionally, Renee White-Clark, Ed.D. (Child Study) appeared on News 12-TV's "At Issue" program as an education expert assessing the outcome for students of the state takeover of the Roosevelt School District.

Faculty invited to serve on prestigious committees and boards included: Richard Torz, Ph.D. (Economics), nominated to serve on the Board of Directors of the Eastern Economic Association; Odessa Weatherford Jacobs, Ph.D. (Child Study), elected president of the L.I. Black Educators Association and recipient of

FACILITIES HIGHLIGHTS 1997-2002

- The College purchased a five-story brownstone at 256 Clinton Ave., Brooklyn, to be used for administrative and faculty offices.
- A new brick wall sign was installed near the main entrance to the 245 building in Brooklyn.
- Patchogue's new athletic facility was dedicated as the John A. Danzi Athletic Center in honor of Trustee John Danzi.
- A high-speed fiber optic inter-campus network connecting all offices, instructional facilities, computer labs and libraries was constructed.
- The College broke ground on a new three-story Business Information and Technology Center in Patchague.
- Brooklyn's chemistry and biology labs were renovated and upgraded.
- A new courtyard garden was unveiled behind the 256 building, later named the Bloodgood Garden in memory of Mary and Albert Bloodgood, parents of Trustee Dorothy Bloodgood Kennedy '48.
- An additional building on Roe Blvd. was acquired and renovated to house the Patchogue Institutional Advancement staff.
  - St. Angela Hall Academy was purchased.
- A brick sign was erected at the north entrance to the Patchogue Campus, welcoming visitors.
- The Board of Trustees approved a 15-year master plan outlining significant physical improvements and additions to the Brooklyn Campus.
- Renovations and upgrades were made to Lorenzo Hall and St. Angela Hall in Brooklyn.

the African-American Educators Achievement Award from Suffolk County Executive Robert Gaffney; and Gail Lamberta, M.A. (Recreation), appointed to the Board of Directors of the L.I. Leisure Services Association.

As we extol the achievements of our faculty, we also pause to remember the dedication of S. Josephine Marie Cavanaugh, S.T.D., Chair of the Religious Studies Dept., who died June 12. A devoted teacher and a pioneering member of the Patchogue Campus, S. Josephine will be sorely missed by all of us.

SPECIAL EVENTS

As usual, our campuses were bustling with activity this year. We welcomed a wide array of special guests to our campus, including author Peter Quinn; writer, teacher and activist Parker Palmer; Suffolk County Executive Robert Gaffney; Brooklyn Borough President Marty Markowitz; State Senator Caesar Trunzo; and State Senator Velmanette Montgomery. Our Councils for the Arts offered another superb season of performing arts presentations, and our student organizations hosted informative programs on topics such as breast cancer and drug and alcohol awareness, to name a few. In Patchogue, we honored peace and social justice activist S. Mary Fritz with our 2002 Esse Non Videri Award, and celebrated the fifth anniversary of the John A. Danzi Athletic Center.

In the weeks following the tragedy of September 11, 2001, our College community came together to pray for those who died, including our lost alumni, students and friends. Student groups at both campuses responded with generosity and compassion, organizing prayer vigils, collecting donations of supplies for the rescue workers and volunteers at Ground Zero, and raising funds via bake sales and auctions. Funds raised in Brooklyn were donated to a new College scholarship, established to provide tuition assistance to New York City and Long Island firefighters, police officers and emergency workers and their families.

In the aftermath of September 11, the Board of Trustees decided to postpone our annual Dinner Dance (originally scheduled for October) and instead made plans for another kind of event. At a dinner on February 28, we honored members of the New York City Fire and Police Depts. and their Emergency Medical Services, as well as the Volunteer Fire Depts. of Long Island. Proceeds from this gala raised approximately $220,000 for the newly-created Uniformed Services Grant. It was a bittersweet evening, but one also marked by a sense of unity, hope and inspiration.

Of course, none of the wonderful events and achievements I have mentioned thus far would have been possible without the sacrifice of our loyal alumni and the generosity of our many friends in the corporate and civic communities. This annual report affords me the opportunity to thank each and every one of you for your support and confidence. Your gifts to the Annual Fund, your participation in special events such as the Dinner Dance and Golf Tournament, the grants awarded by your corporation or foundation, the scholarships you funded – these represent not only your financial support of St. Joseph's College, but also your faith in our ability to embrace our continuing challenge: to educate the leaders of tomorrow while preparing them for lives characterized by integrity, intellectual and spiritual values, social responsibility and service.

Within this report you will find listings of some highlights of the College's growth over the past five years in the areas of program development and facilities. I also draw your attention to a compilation of major gifts received since 1997. I think you will agree that St. Joseph's has come quite a long way in a relatively short period of time. The Collegewide strategic plan and the Brooklyn master plan are our templates for the future. I am certain that with your continued support we can build on our strengths and further evolve as an educational institution.

The donor pages that follow are an honor roll of those who share our commitment to excellence. You may be an alumnus of St.

Joseph's, perhaps with a long history of giving to your alma mater. You may be a recent graduate, making your first donation. You may represent a corporation or foundation that believes in our strong academic programs, values and vision. Whatever your reason for giving, know that we are most grateful. On behalf of our more than 4,600 students, I thank you for journeying with us.

Sincerely,

Sister Elizabeth A. Hill, caj

Sister Elizabeth A. Hill, C.S.J. President

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS 1997-2002

- Asst. Prof. of Business Rupert
   Campbell was appointed to coordinate College programs exploring and celebrating issues of diversity.
- The College's first graduate degrees were conferred to students in the M.A. in Infant/Toddler Therapeutic Education program.
- Councils for the Arts were established at each campus.
- The College of Arts & Sciences was renamed the School of Arts & Sciences, and the Division of General Studies became the School of Adult & Professional Education.
- SJC's second graduate offering, the M.S. in Management program, debuted at both campuses.
- Brooklyn opened the Academic Center for Enhancement Services (ACES) to provide supportive services to students whose first language is not English.

- The College teamed up with Polytechnic University to offer a combined B.A./B.S. + M.S. program in Computer Science as part of a new educational collaboration known as the Knowledge Workers Educational Alliance.
- The first distance learning class was introduced.
- The College's education programs at both the elementary and secondary levels were re-registered with New York State.
- The Institute for the Study of Religion in Community Life was established.
- The ACES program was renamed the Marygrace Calhoun Dunn Academic Center in memory of Mrs. Dunn, a 1946 alumna.
- Online registration and advising became available.

- A variety of new online and distance learning courses were added to the curriculum.
- A third concentration in Human Resources Development was introduced in the M.S. in Management program.
- SJC joined Molloy College to form the Long Island Partnership for Study Abroad.
- The College signed an articulation agreement with St. John's University, paving the way for SJC to qualify as a 150-credit Accounting program.
- A cooperative master's program in Speech-Language Pathology with Adelphi University was announced.
- SJC students were for the first time offered the opportunity to reside at Polytechnic University as part of a cooperative housing program between the two neighboring institutions.

Established in 1995, the Aquinas Society is a special group of individuals who have made a long-term investment in the future of St. Joseph's by naming the College as beneficiary in their will or planned giving vehicle.

To become a member of the Aquinas Society, please notify us in writing that you have included St. Joseph's College in your estate plans through one of these vehicles: your will, a trust or annuity, an IRA, or as the beneficiary of a life insurance policy.

Student Profile: Joseph Steigile

Joseph Steigile, a student at the Patchogue Campus, is the recipient of a full Presidential Scholarship. A member of the Class of 2005, Joseph has maintained a 3.96 GPA, which has earned him a spot on the Dean's List each semester. He excels academically while managing to hold down two part-time jobs—as a waiter at the Olive Garden restaurant and as a lifeguard at the World Gym.

Joseph graduated from Centereach H.S. with an overall average of 3.9, and he scored 1250 on his SATs. During his high school years, he played varsity soccer and basketball, represented his class on the student government and participated in the variety show and the jazz band. He is a well-rounded young man who enjoys the commuter college experience.
